Introduction

I am an experienced freelance journalist with over 20 years' experience of writing for newspapers, magazines, trade publications, websites, and corporate clients. As well as news and features, I produce advertorials, ghost write columns, and offer a range of editing and consultancy services.

Where does my work appear?

I have written news and features for a long list of publications, including The Independent, Citywire, Moneywise, Sunday Telegraph, Daily Express, FT Adviser, and Investment Week. In addition, I have produced advertorials and reports for various organisations.

Testimonials

"I have always been very happy with the quality of work that Rob presents - polished, accurate and, above all, on time."

Ben Bonney-James - Sales Director at the Financial Times.

"Rob Griffin stands out from other freelance journalists in always coming up with timely and appropriate feature ideas which, for The Independent, is not always an easy task."

Simon Read - Personal Finance Editor of The Independent.

"I admire Rob for the quality of his ideas, but also for his ability to turn those ideas into engaging pieces that appeal to a wide audience. He has made invaluable contributions to our publication over the years."

Richard Allen, Publisher of The Fulham Review
