Dads Aloud for fathers and their children trip to Spring Barn Farm	£300	"We were taken to the farm by a big yellow bus that ran on chip fat and the day was slightly overcast but lifted by the joy on the children's faces. The spaces and activities in the barn included making pumpkin faces, audio / visual learning tools, and plenty of outdoor activities such as climbing walls, cycle tracks, rip wire farm animals which looked to be healthy as well as approachable. During the snacks time we spent some useful time planning how to take the group forward and we were all inspired by the possibilities off the back of the visit we had a really successful event for fathers and kids at the school a few weeks after, it involved building a roundhouse in the school grounds as well as fun activities."
