

FATHER'S DAY AT THE ROBERTSON'S

It's Father's Day on Sunday 16th June.
Greta and Bobby have been preparing to give their father, Mr Robertson, a very special day.

1. Who is preparing a special day for their father?

Greta and Sam

Greta and Bobby

Bobby and Sue

Rita and Tom

2. When is Father's Day?

Greta and Bobby have been planning to make this day as special as they can for their Dad because they want to thank him for being such a brilliant Dad.

3. Why do Greta and Bobby want to make Father's Day so special for their Dad?

Greta and Bobby have been thinking of the things their Dad does which make him so brilliant to them.

They have made a list of some of these things.

- Helps us with our homework.
- Helps to nurse us when we are ill.
- Makes delicious roast dinners every Sunday.
- Plays really fun games with us.
- Makes the best cups of tea.

4. When does Mr Roberston make roast dinners?

Monday

Christmas

December

Sunday

5. What makes Mr Robertson such a brilliant Dad to Greta and Bobby? Tick 2 things.

He keeps the house tidy _____

He plays fun games _____

He helps to nurse them when they're ill _____

He is a brilliant gardener _____

Greta and Bobby have decided what they are going to do for their Dad to make his day wonderful. One of the jobs their Dad always does on Sundays is wash the car. But not this Sunday because Greta and Bobby will be doing it for him!

6. What does Mr Robertson always do on Sundays?

Wash his hair.

Drive his car.

Wash the car.

Watch the television.

The plants in the Robertson's garden need watering every day. This a job that Mr Robertson usually does. This Sunday, Greta and Bobby have decided that this is a job that they are going to do to make their Dad's life a little easier.

7. How often do the plants in the Robertson's garden need to be watered?

Once a week.

Twice a week.

On Sundays

Every day.

8. Who will be watering the Robertson's garden plants this Sunday?

Greta and Bobby are have been saving up their pocket money. They have used it to buy their Dad a bottle of his favourite aftershave as a Father's Day gift.

9. What have Greta and Bobby been saving?

Stamps

Beads

Sweets

Pocket money

10. What did Greta and Bobby buy with their pocket money?

Greta and Bobby have also spent lots of time making special cards to wish their Dad a very happy Father's Day.

Father's Day is a very special day for Bobby and Greta. It is a time when they not only think about how thankful they are to their Dad, but also to all the men in their family who have given them their love, care and concern.

11. Who do Greta and Bobby think about on Father's Day?

Can you design a special card for someone who helps you ?