

Verb Tenses

Verbs are "doing words" and we use them all the time when we are speaking and writing. BUT, it is very important that we make sure that the verbs we use are in the correct tense.

Which of sentences below is written using the correct tense of the verb:

The farmer will feed his cows.

The farmer will fed his cows.

Below, there are lots of sentences, but the verb in each sentence is missing. It is your job to use the verb above each picture to complete each sentence. However, be careful! You may need to change the verb so that it is in the correct tense. Good luck!
