

The Three Pigs

Mum and Dad Pig lived on a farm with their three sons.

One day the sons said,
“We are grown up now so we want our own home.”

Mum and Dad Pig agreed and the sons were very happy.

1. Where did Mum and Dad Pig live with their three sons?

In a village.

At the seaside.

On a farm.

In a forest.

2. Why did the sons want to leave home?

---

The very next day, the three pigs said goodbye to their Mum and Dad and left home.

The three pigs walked for a week and a day. Finally, they found a good place for a new house.

3. How long did it take the three pigs to find a good place for a new house?

---

7. Who was watching the younger pigs?

---

The younger pigs had a lovely walk and then they returned to their new homes.

The big bad wolf watched as the youngest pig went into his house of straw. He prowled down the garden path and said,

“Little pig, little pig, let me come in!”

The little pig was very afraid.

8. How did the youngest pig feel when the wolf came to his house?

Happy

Excited

Afraid

Hungry

“I will blow your house down” growled the big bad wolf. And with that, he took a deep breath and blew the house of straw apart!

The little pig ran and he ran until he reached his brother’s house of sticks. The two pigs ran inside.

9. What did the youngest pig do when the wolf blew his house apart?

---