

CD Track list

1. Full performance
2. Ensemble minus Soprano
3. Ensemble minus Alto
4. Ensemble minus Tenor
5. Ensemble minus Baritone

CD features Alistair Parnell (all saxophones).

About Persiflage saxophone quartet;

Based in Bingham, Nottingham, UK, was formed in 2002 by experienced saxophonist and teacher Janet Hoare. 'Persiflage' was commissioned in early 2012 by them by way of commemorating their 10th anniversary as a group.

Their repertoire ranges from hot tango to cool blues, funky folk to smooth swing, and baroque classics to more contemporary styles. Persiflage Saxophone quartet comprises; Janet Hoare (Alto), Jill O'Sullivan (Soprano) Jeff Fry (Tenor) and Phil Rathbone (Baritone).

About the composer;

A graduate of the Royal College of music, Alistair Parnell is based in Nottingham, UK. His busy schedule includes teaching, performing, composing, arranging and conducting.

His very successful private teaching studio has been established for more than 25 years and he is visiting Scholar of Saxophone at the University of Nottingham.

As a performer, Alistair works with some of the country's leading Saxophone ensembles, including the Flotilla ensemble, the Northern saxophone Quartet (NSQ), and the Tribune Saxophone Octet. He is Director of the innovative Equinox Saxophone ensemble.

As a soloist he has produced two CD's; 'Going solo' and 'Winter Solstice' and is in demand as a recitalist. He has performed throughout the UK, USA and Europe and has performed at two World Saxophone Congresses in Slovenia and Thailand.

Alistair is one of the UK's leading EWI (Electronic Wind Instrument) specialists. With more than 25 years experience with midi wind instruments, he has established himself as a highly respected performer and teacher. He is passionate about the potential of technology to enhance music education.

Cover design courtesy of Nicola Pennill.