Beecraft Many beekeepers consider this monthly magazine essential reading. It is full of interesting and topical articles about bees, beekeeping and related subjects. Subscriptions are now managed by Beecraft. After paying your subscription to us you will be sent a special promotional code which will enable you to order directly and benefit from the members' discount on this great publication.

Donation Some members have indicated that they wish to make an additional donation to the Division, this section gives you the opportunity to do so if you wish.

BeeBase This is a really valuable resource for beekeepers (see 'Around the Hives' in the November 2023 newsletter). By responding "Yes" to the BeeBase question you agree to share the following data with the National Bee Unit - BeeBase system: Name, Address, Email, Telephone/Mobile, Membership Number and the name of the Association you are a member of. The full NBU privacy policy is available at: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/animal-and-plant-health-agency-privacy-notice/national-bee-unit-statutory-bee-health-programme-privacy-notice>

Relevant Skills If you have any particular skills that you would be willing to share in order to improve the running of the Division, the education of new beekeepers and information to beekeepers, please indicate this on the membership form.

Events From time to time Chichester Beekeepers has a presence at local events, such as the Weald and Downland Autumn Countryside Show, promoting beekeeping and Chichester Beekeepers. If you are willing to help at such events, or Division or County events such as the annual Beekeepers' Auction or Convention, please indicate in the space provided on the membership form.

If you are in doubt as to which category of membership best meets your needs, or have any other queries, please do not hesitate to call the Membership Secretary, Christine Stevens – 01243 533559
