

Rainbow Horses

Learning Centre CIC

Prevent Risk Assessment

	Yes/No	Evidence
Does the Provision have a policy?	Yes	Included in our Child Protection and Safeguarding policy.
Have staff received appropriate training?	Yes	All staff completed online Prevent trained evidenced by certificates on google drive
Has the Provision got a trained Prevent lead?	Yes	Sue Coombes (DSL)
Do staff know who to discuss concerns with? (Single point of contact - SPOC)	Yes	Sue Coombes (DSL)
Is suitable filtering of the internet in place?	Yes	Learners only access the internet with 1:1 supervision
Do children know who to talk to about their concerns?	Yes	Any member of Rainbow Horses staff (to be passed on to Prevent Lead)
Are there opportunities for children to learn about radicalisation and extremism?	Yes	At Rainbow horses we create an atmosphere of openness and safety to discuss sensitive topics including radicalization and extremism. We also promote spiritual, moral, social and cultural development.
Have any cases been reported?	No
Are individual students risk assessed?	Yes	Individual risk assessments if needed.
What factors make the Provision community potentially vulnerable		Engagement with others online and unmonitored exposure to the internet outside of Rainbow Horses, having low self-esteem, being socially isolated, experiencing significant trauma and having adverse child experiences.

