FLAME TRUST PLAYGROUND PROJECTS IN ROMANIA

Please help us to create even more new recreational playground facilities for deprived communities

FLAME TRUST in partnership with Habitat for Humanity

Flame Trust is a recognised charitable organisation that has so far delivered four first class recreational facilities for children in deprived communities in Romania.

In 2020, in partnership with Habitat for Humanity, the first project appeal enabled a playground to be built in Sighet at a home that looks after the needs of children with disabilities. In 2022, another facility was created in the town of Comanesti to meet a similar situation of challenged children in a kindergarten that had been deprived of support and excluded from local investment. Then in 2023, a third project was completed for Valea Seaca School in Pascani which didn't have any playground or outside facilities. For our fourth project in 2024, we again partnered with Habitat for Humanity, in conjunction with Brusturoasa, Bacau County in Romania. Here, the local council provided a piece of land in a central location for the project, providing a playground for the local low income community of around 2,400 inhabitants.

Flame Trust CEO Dave Pope (left) comments: “I am increasingly encouraged and blessed by what has been achieved in recent years with the construction of these four playground facilities in deprived communities in Romania.

“Steered by Calin Rezmuves, Flame’s Practical Assistant, the projects have enriched the lives of children and parents alike, and have made a profound statement about why we do what we do. All four projects were delivered on time and within budget, receiving national acclaim.

“On the completion of our fourth playground, the Mayor wrote: ‘Thanks to your kindness, we have been able to turn a long awaited dream into a wonderful and lasting reality. The newly built playground will offer children a proper space for recreation, development and social interaction, significantly enhancing the quality of life for the entire community’.

“Our heartfelt desire and aim is to continue delivering these life enhancing and community changing projects.”

Please consider whether these ongoing projects are something that you or your company, organisation, or church could support. A representative from Flame would happily explain in more detail, and even consider visiting with you.
