Supporting Each Other

We all face challenges, in work, life, health and our social lives. We all need to keep an eye on each other, help each other, care about each other. We have our own lives to worry about, but we cannot be selfish and not be there for each other.

Jesus in his own lifetime, helped these in the most need, with faith and trust in him. We owe our own lives to Jesus as he gave his life to save us from our own mistakes, called sins.

In our church family, we all have our part to play in helping out; from just being there, chatting to one another, to helping out with church duties. We should all help each other.

“Mark 10:43-44, “But whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all”
