The Twelfth Sunday after Trinity

The Collect for today:

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve: pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever (or)

God of constant mercy, who sent your Son to save us: remind us of your goodness, increase your grace within us, that our thankfulness may grow, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Harvest Supper

Friday 4th October in St John's Church. Buffet supper and entertainment. Tickets are £5 and will be going on sale shortly.

Introducing - The Alternate Bible Study

Our regular Bible Study group starts again at the Rectory on the 12th of this month. We will be using the new guide and starting with one of the Epistles. This group meets every other Thursday. On alternate Thursdays there will be an Alternate Bible Study group. This group will be for people who don't think they can do Bible study, are worried they might say the wrong thing or don't want to speak up. There will be no difficult questions or tests, just a gentle look at a different subject every other week.

This group will meet at 7.30, in the vestry at St John's for about an hour. This group will be starting on Thursday 19th September with a look at St Peter.

Everyone is welcome at either group.

Bring a Bible.

Bring a friend.

Most of all, bring yourself
