

INGATESTONE AND BLACKMORE RIDING CLUB

27th

Dec 2017 Christmas Clinic with Nettie Lewis

at Beechwood Equestrian Centre, The Wheatsheaf Centre
Main Road, Rettendon Common
Chelmsford, Essex CM3 8DY

Annette Lewis, showjumping coach: accredited and UKCC level 3 qualified.

I have been riding since the age of 2; winning pony club jumping aged 4, as well as winning my first affiliated open aged 6. In addition, I was selected for the Junior Europeans team aged 11. I have competed at pony, junior, young riders and senior British teams.

Some of my career highlights include: winning the Vauxhall Young Riders competition at Olympia, the Sunday Telegraph Cup and Speed horse of the year at HOYS. Also, I have been placed 2nd in the Queens cup on three occasions - in addition to winning the Grand Prix at Royal Windsor and becoming National Ladies Champion at the same venue. Winning the Hickstead derby trial and coming second in the speed Derby.

Whilst competing at Olympia I won four competitions; and was awarded the Courvoisier award of excellence for outstanding performance at the show. In my first two senior British team appearances, I jumped double clear- in both competitions.

When coaching, my specialty is helping with ring and competition skills.

As a licensed British show jumping coach, I have health and safety, child protection and first aid qualifications in addition to being fully insured.

I have been coaching for over 25 years and still compete, so I am aware of changes in course design. I coach both adults and children, from inexperienced and nervous pupils to competitors at the highest level- all abilities are catered for.

NB. As this is a clinic and you ride at your own risk.

This is a day time clinic.
