

Dear Friends,

A prayer which is leading me through this Easter season. It was inspired by the words of Matthew 28:7 “He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee”.

I love these words, Lord! They lift my heart when I am burdened and lighten my fear for tomorrow. Where ever I go, I repeat to myself that Jesus has just stepped ahead.

Whenever I am scared at what I have to face, I recall that the presence of Jesus is already filling the room, surrounding me with courage. Whatever I have to do, I think on Jesus, knowing that he believes in me. And that enables me to sing with each new dawn and to look at each new challenge as a further adventure with Christ. That really helps me God – Thank you!

(From Whispers from the Heart by Hilary Faith Jones)

With every blessing, Rev Bekkie