

Dear friends, it is a great delight to announce that next month, I will be starting a new ministry in St Peter and St Andrew, Corby and St Michael and All Angels, Great Oakley.

This means that after four years in Rutland, I will be saying goodbye. Thank you to everyone for your love and support over the years. It's meant the world to Cecily and me and we've had an absolute blast.

My last Sunday in the Oakham Team will be Sunday 23rd February. I will be at the 8.30am and 10.30am services at All Saints Church, Oakham, meeting in the Oakham school chapel. My farewell service will be at Langham Parish Church at 4pm. Please come and join me as we celebrate my time in Rutland and to say goodbye.'
