3. CHRISTMAS LIGHTS WEEKEND

After a discussion the Committee noted the following pros and cons:

Christmas Lights Switch On:

- There was an altercation between a taxi driver and the marshall on Quay Hill. It was discussed about possibly using Helston marshals next year and also if barriers could be put in place across the closed roads to stop traffic trying to access the closed roads. - Next year, the road closure will be from 6.00pm to 8.00pm.
- First aiders need to be sourced for next year.
- Road signage to be discussed at the combined meeting with the Lighting Team in April.
- Amie to email all choirs "thank you's" for their co-operation over the weekend.
- A Mayor's Christmas Card is to be sent to Pete Macfayden.
- The Craft Fair in the Temperance Hall did well.
- Next year's shop window theme will be "Peace in Europe Christmas"
- Ada will try to source donkeys for next year.
- To University be approached for funding or sponsorship.
