Penryn Town Council

Permarin Car Park

Permarin car park is leased by the Town Council from Cornwall Council and provides free parking for residents and visitors alike. The entrance to the car park can be accessed from St Gluvias Street off Commercial Road. In 2013, the Town Council introduced terms and conditions of use for the car park so please be aware that you may receive a parking charge notice if you park outside of the marked bays and that the shoppers' spaces in the top right of the car park are short stay only

Shute Meadow Car Park

Shute Meadow is a small car park for residents only provided free of charge by the Town Council. A permit is required for use of the car park and these can be obtained from the Town Council on completion of the Shute Meadow Permit Application Form. The terms and conditions of use of the car park are available on the website. Permits are limited to one per household.

Season tickets

3 month, 6 month and annual tickets are available for some car parks. Season tickets allow you to park in up to four named Council car parks.

Rover tickets

Weekly, 3 month, 6 month and annual tickets are available for some car parks. Rover tickets allow you to park in many different Council long stay car parks.
