

Data Protection/GDPR Statement

Don't Shout Out recognises the importance of the requirements set out by the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). We want to be clear as to how and why we collect and use personal data that is received.

We collect and handle data to:

- Contact you in response to an enquiry you have made
- Keep you updated with course details/workshops which we think may be relevant to you
- Update our internal records once a learner is enrolled on a course (details will be sought at that time)

We will always check that you wish to be added to any relevant mailing list. If no permission is given, then no details will be added. We will also ensure that your details are kept with us for the minimum time required and then removed securely. If you wish them to be removed earlier, then please do contact us on dontshoutout@gmail.com

All details received will be stored confidentiality and will not be distributed to any third party without your permission.

Our full GDPR Privacy Policy can be obtained by contacting dontshoutout@gmail.com

Don't Shout Out will review the GDPR Privacy Policy annually

Use Of Cookies

What are Cookies?

Cookies are small data files that are placed on your computer or mobile device when you visit a website. Cookies are widely used by online service providers in order to (for example) make websites or services work, or to work more efficiently, as well as to provide reporting information.

Cookies do not allow us to gain access to your computer.

What Are The Different Types Of Cookies?

Essential Website/Session Cookies - These are strictly necessary cookies that enable our website to function as intended.

Analytical/Performance Cookies - These enable our website developers to monitor the performance of our site (page loading speeds, etc) to ensure that everything is functioning correctly.

Functionality Cookies - These enable you to be recognised when you return to our site to improve your user experience.

How Do You Disable Cookies?

You are able to change your cookie settings on your web browser. If you no longer want cookies to be stored, you can refuse cookies via your web browser.

However, please note that doing this may affect how well our website works for you – it may become slower and you may not have access to all the information you require.
