

OCTOBER 30th

MORNING

It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the Lord.

Lam. 3: 26

Hath God forgotten to be gracious?
hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies?

Psa. 77: 9

I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes:
nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications
when I cried unto thee.

Psa. 31: 22

Shall not God avenge his own elect,
which cry day and night unto him,
though He bear long with them?
I tell you that he will avenge them speedily.

Luke 18: 7-8

Wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.

Prov. 20: 22

Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him:
fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way,
because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

Psa. 37: 7

Ye shall not need to fight in this battle:
set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD.

II Chron. 20: 17

Let us not be weary in well doing ... in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

Gal. 6: 9

Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth,
and hath long patience for it,
until he receive the early and latter rain.

James 5: 7

EVENING

Take us the foxes, the little foxes,
that spoil the vines for our vines have tender grapes.

Song 2: 15

Who can understand his errors?
cleanse thou me from secret faults.

Psa. 19: 12

Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God;
lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you,
and thereby many be defiled.

Heb. 12: 15

Ye did run well;
who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

Gal. 5: 7

He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ ...
only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ.

Phil. 1: 6, 27

The tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things.

Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth

And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity:

so is the tongue among our members,

that it defileth the whole body,

and setteth on fire the course of nature;

and it is set on fire of hell ...

The tongue can no man tame;

it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

James. 3: 5-6, 8

Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt.

Col. 4: 6
