

A sunset over a beach with a castle silhouette in the distance. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a golden glow across the sky and reflecting on the wet sand. The sky is filled with soft, wispy clouds. In the background, the silhouette of a castle or large building is visible on a cliffside. The overall scene is peaceful and serene.

*Jesus said:
I am the light of the world:
he that followeth me
shall not walk in darkness,
but shall have the light of life.*

John 8: 12