“I GREATLY ADMIRE SCHIZOPHRENICS WHO FIGHT THROUGH TO VICTORY”

THIS WEEK'S SELECTED BIBLE READING IS ROMANS CHAPTER 8

(Verses 15-39) For you did not receive a spirit that makes you a slave again to fear, but you received the Spirit of sonship. And by him we cry, “Abba, Father.” The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are God’s children. Now if we are children, then we are heirs – heirs of God and co-heirs with Christ, if indeed we share in his sufferings in order that we may share in his glory.

Future Glory I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us. The creation waits in eager expectation for the sons of God to be revealed. For the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay and brought into the glorious freedom of the children of God.

We know that the whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. For in this hope we were saved. But hope that is seen is no hope at all. Who hopes for what he already has? But if we hope for what we do not yet have, we wait for it patiently.

In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express. And he who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints in accordance with God’s will.

More than Conquerors And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose. For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified.

What, then, shall we say in response to this? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all – how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen?

It is God who justifies. Who is he that condemns? Christ Jesus, who died – more than that, who was raised to life – is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? As it is written: “For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.”

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is Christ Jesus our Lord.

“I greatly admire schizophrenics who fight through to victory. I admire these victories above all other deliverances,” says Ida Mae Hammond in her book Pigs in the Parlour. She says it is hard work for the schizophrenic pressing through to full freedom.

What would cause a mature, respected Christian counsellor and deliverance minister to state her unique and revealing conviction?

During the course of her ministry, with her husband (pictured left), she came into touch with many lives in bondage needing the freedom of Jesus. Nothing was more challenging to her than the schizophrenia deliverance – hence her declaration.

The purpose of this Freedom Encourager is to convey to you the hope, encouragement and comfort found only in Jesus Christ, the Saviour of the world, regarding the defeat of schizophrenia.

You may feel like wanting to give up as the fight to become free is proving too long and seems apparently hopeless. But don't throw in the towel! Jesus kept hope alive in me for 26 years – then He granted power to drive out the evil intruders in my life and minutes later burst through with His healing. The joy of freedom experienced was beyond mere telling. It can be the same for you, too.

Our scripture reading above talks about waiting patiently in hope for that which is not possessed. The kind of patience in your heart hoping for freedom can often exist in the fertile ground of what is a long, hard struggle with “the Holy Spirit helping us in our weakness” (verse 26).

When you read “Pigs in the Parlour” you will encounter just how God gave to Ida Mae Hammond a revelation about schizophrenia at a time she was helping a woman. How beneficial it would be if thousands more Christians around the world had a similar heart to understand the schizophrenic's dark, spiritual battle!

God said to her: “ ‘Schizophrenia is a disturbance, distortion or disintegration of the development of the personality.’ He instructed me to put my hands together, palms facing and with fingers laced together tightly. He said this represented what the schizophrenic nature was like. Each hand represented one of the dual personalities within the schizophrenic, neither of which was the real self. They were tightly interlocked.

“The Lord said: “Your hands represent the nest of demon spirits that make up schizophrenia. I want you to know that it is demonic. It is a nest of demon spirits, and they came into this person's life when she was very, very young.” See the image of the revelation God gave to Ida Mae Hammond at the end of the Freedom Encourager below.

LET US CONSIDER THE UNIQUENESS ABOUT JESUS, THE SON OF GOD, WHO IS WELL ABLE TO DELIVER FROM SCHIZOPHRENIA:

1. Through His death and resurrection, Jesus defeated Satan and all the powers of sin and death – even schizophrenia.

In John 8, Jesus says: “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.” If you know Jesus as Lord and Saviour, then He has ownership of your life. His light which has shone into your life is the presence of His power, glory and love able to defeat the evil presence of schizophrenia. I had known Jesus for eight years when the disturbance of schizophrenia shipwrecked my life. Little did I realise it was going to take more than a third of a lifetime before normal life and freedom would return.

But though life was to become increasingly isolated and difficult as time went on, the faithfulness of Jesus living within kept hold of me. Right now in your struggles, you may ask “Where is Jesus in all this? I thought He was going to lead me through and out!” In all the bad feelings and the bombardment of your mind, remember to keep trusting in the God who never fails. The God you love is the One and Only True God! When He says to you that will never walk in darkness - believe it! The light of the life of Jesus can penetrate and defeat any spiritual darkness seeking to control and destroy your life.

It is always necessary to keep central in your thoughts the importance of the Word of God as you battle on to victory. Not only do we value the uniqueness of Jesus but we highly prize every single word the Incarnate Son of God gave us. He underlined the need for faith as the victory, keeping His commandments and allowing His presence to dominate our lives. As He Himself said before going back to heaven: “I will not leave you comfortless. I will come to you.” John 14.

What a wonderful provision it is for a Christian schizophrenic to be able to rely on the strengthening support of the presence of Jesus to carry them through. It is only through leaning hard on the Holy Spirit that you are able to make sense of the battle ensuing in mind and heart. Through trusting in Jesus, you can bring the light of the spirit of God to reign within you. Determining to keep the word of God living and active in you also provides resistance against the devil who seeks to take an advantage over you mentally.

2. Jesus encourages us to entirely trust the word He has spoken for He is well able to bring about the performance of every promise He has made – which depends on Him alone to bring it to pass.

Every promise that Jesus made, He is well able to fulfil. So when He says, as in Mark 9, to the man who brought his son possessed with an evil spirit for deliverance that “everything is possible for him who believes,” it is a word for us to believe. The defeat of schizophrenia in your life may seem to be such an impossible and hard thing to happen but with Jesus IT IS POSSIBLE. I have proved it. After 26 years of long struggle, Jesus did break through the prison doors and lead me out. I have been through the daily discipline of years of hanging on to Jesus but with Jesus mainly hanging on to me. He fulfilled His word and delivered me. Let that breakthrough encourage you!!

There is so much time and so many days for you when life is so hard because schizophrenia makes it so. As Ida Mae Hammond said: “The deliverance is the deepest, most involved and the most determined that she and her husband encountered.” And how much heavier is the burden to carry and see through when there are no loved ones or Christian friends standing by giving support or spiritual help. Why should it be so overwhelmingly apparent that God’s precious people needing the most support to bring them through into freedom find the least support of all coming their way. It is likely that a schizophrenic not only struggles to understand what their bondage is all about, but other Christians struggle for discernment to understand how an uninvited demonic presence can enter the life of someone they know.

God is God and He works and assists us towards the breaking forth of His freedom into your lives. I do believe that after such a long time battling the spiritual bondage, God sovereignly led me to meet my present wife, Tina, and arranged “my way out”. What I mention now is in order to build up your faith that the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ can intervene and set free. After three months of courting Tina, the Lord visited me in my bedroom one night and gave me a real vision of Tina in a bridal gown with her father, Maurice, by her side. His words were simply these: “Enough is enough.”

At the time I had been praying about coming off my medication – a decision I would only do if the Lord guided me. That was the night in 1988 when God spoke and medication finished for good. I could not get away from the vision of Tina. I was not ready for marriage but said to the Lord: “If you give me a vision like that I will hold on to it.” And so I did. When Tina, who had found out about my schizophrenic illness, took me out for a dinner date and said on the way to the restaurant: “This is our last day today James, there is no longer any point in our relationship”, I knew it was not the right time to let her go.

Stunned by my reply, Tina returned home with our relationship still intact though our meetings were curtailed somewhat. In time, she said to the Lord: “Is there a way out for James? He loves you, I know that.” She believed that my deliverance and healing could move forward if a prayer force was established for me. So she contacted family members and friends up and down the United Kingdom and asked them to pray. Some calls were made at desperate times when I was in particular need. But the amount of prayer ascending to God’s throne on high grew and grew, until eventually “there was enough to get the job done”, and God sent His answer. It came during a time of prayer in which I heard the Lord whisper that by the end of the day I would be free. And within a few hours of receiving the answer, God enabled to cast out the nest of spirits in my life to be followed by a healing touch lasering its way through my entire head!

FINAL THOUGHT TAKEN FROM CHARLES H. SPURGEON’S “MORNING AND EVENING DAILY READINGS”.

Scripture text from Numbers 11:23: “The Lord answered Moses: “Is the Lord’s arm too short? You will now see whether or not what I say will come true for you.”

“GOD had made a positive promise to Moses that for the space of a whole month He would feed the vast host in the wilderness with flesh. Moses, being overtaken by a fit of unbelief, looks to the outward means, and is at a loss to know how the promise can be fulfilled. He looked to the creature instead of the Creator. But does the Creator expect the creature to fulfil his promise for Him? No; He who makes the promise ever fulfils it by His own unaided omnipotence. If He speaks, it is done – done by Himself. His promises do not depend for their fulfilment upon the co-operation of the puny strength of man.

We can at once perceive the mistake which Moses made. And yet how commonly we do the same! God has promised to supply our needs, and we look to the creature to do what God has promised to do; and then, because we perceive the creature weak and feeble, we indulge in unbelief. Why look we to that quarter at all? Will you look to the top of the Alps for summer heat? Will you journey to the north pole to gather fruits ripened in the sun? Verily, you would act no more foolishly if you did this than when you look to the weak for strength, and to the creature to do the Creator’s work. Let us, then, put the question on the right footing. The ground of faith is not the sufficiency of the visible means for the performance of the promise, but the all-sufficiency of the invisible God, who will most surely do as He hath said.

If after clearly seeing that the onus lies with the Lord and not with the creature, we dare to indulge in mistrust, the question of God comes home mightily to us: “Has the Lord’s hand waxed short?” May it happen, too, in His mercy, that with the question there may flash upon our souls that blessed declaration: “You will now see whether or not what I say will come true to you.”

Below: the image of the revelation God gave to Ida Mae Hammond

1. Keeps one from giving and receiving love — both GOD'S & MAN'S.
2. Weds one to the world for love.
3. Makes one tell all seeking attention, punishment and correction.
4. Includes inordinate affection for animals.
5. With honesty at all costs — seeking evidence for suspicions.

6. Keeps one from looking at self. Projects one's own faults into others.
7. Disobedience and anti-submissiveness.
8. Weds one to selfish desires.
9. Both mental & spiritual. Seductive: to tempt, mislead, decoy. Delusion: a misleading of the mind, false belief, fixed misconception. In psychiatry: a false belief regarding self — common in paranoia.

IF YOU HAVE NEVER INVITED JESUS CHRIST INTO YOUR LIFE, AND WISH TO, DO PRAY THE FOLLOWING PRAYER WITH ALL YOUR HEART: "Lord God Almighty, I approach you in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ. I know I have sinned in my thoughts, words and actions. There are so many good things I have not done. There are so many sinful things I have done. I am truly sorry for the sinfulness in my life, but most of all I acknowledge the sin that separates me from you. I accept the death of Jesus on the Cross to redeem me and extend the gift of eternal life. Gratefully, I give my life back to you as I now ask you to come into my life. Come in as my Saviour and Lord and cleanse me. Come in as my Lord to control me. Come with the strength of your grace and the power of your Spirit to defeat the evil spirit of schizophrenia that troubles me. Now you have set my spirit free, pour your delivering and healing power into my life as I take authority in the name of Jesus through the power of his blood over the intruding force. I assert your ownership of my life and resist any legal right that the devil seeks to hold over my life and bind up and expel any evil presence. I believe that my mind can be completely set free and my whole life enjoy the total freedom of Jesus. Amen.

I testify to Satan personally as to what the word says the blood does for me: <sup>1</sup>

Through the blood of Jesus, I am redeemed out of the hand of the devil. <sup>2</sup>

Through the blood of Jesus, all my sins are forgiven. <sup>2a</sup>

The blood of Jesus Christ, God's Son, continually cleanses me from all sin. <sup>3</sup>

Through the blood of Jesus, I am justified, made righteous, just-as-if-I'd never sinned. <sup>4</sup>

Through the blood of Jesus, I am sanctified, made holy, set apart to God. <sup>5</sup>

My body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, redeemed, cleansed, by the blood of Jesus. <sup>6</sup>

In Him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace . . .

THIS WEEK'S SELECTED BIBLE READING IS PSALM 32

Blessed is he whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man whose sins the LORD does not count against him and in whose spirit is no deceit. When I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.

For day and night your hand was heavy upon me; my strength was sapped as in the heat of summer. Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my iniquity. I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD" - and you forgave the guilt of my sin.

Therefore let everyone who is godly pray to you while you may be found; surely when the mighty waters rise, they will not reach him. You are my hiding place; you will protect me from trouble and surround me with songs of deliverance.

I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go; I will counsel you and watch over you. Do not be like the horse or the mule, which have no understanding but must be controlled by bit and bridle or they will not come to you.

Many are the woes of the wicked, but the LORD'S unfailing love surrounds the man who trusts in him. Rejoice in the LORD and be glad, you righteous; sing, all you who are upright in heart!

How comforting it is to know the abiding presence of the Holy Spirit in all the trials of battling against schizophrenia!!

Through all the confusion of your mind, make sure you anchor faith in Jesus. It is necessary to run to Him for all the encouragement and endurance necessary to oppose the Satanic bondage.

The times you spend at the feet of Jesus meditating on His Word to provide strength to go on are both necessary and precious. Hiding in God is the way of finding hope to continue the fight.

Contending against an enemy who has suddenly erupted in your life is the most baffling thing to handle. Little wonder you need to lean hard on Jesus to make sense of the onslaught.

If what you are passing through is anything like my experience over many weary, faith-plodding years, it is hard to mark progress. Your feelings tell you nothing as you discover that living, active, precious faith in such circumstances is what endures.

We need to take a leaf out of the book of King David as found in the above Psalm. He had a relationship with God. The Lord was His shepherd. He must ever be our own personal shepherd in the whole of life, too.

You fully sense in this Psalm that it was only to the Lord he would flee in the hour of need. The Lord alone was the one he trusted to see him through. The arm of flesh – whether his own or another – was of no use, he needed the help of the Lord.

God has written a truth in our hearts which spurs us to rely on Him alone. We feel this is the most acceptable way. The cry for help you make to Him is always certainly heard. He will never leave or forsake once you have made Him the Lord of your life.

Though it would be a great advantage to receive the help of Christian friends to pray for you and support you through the onslaught of schizophrenia, the condition births such a withdrawal state through taking medication that it is often hard to communicate your need with others.

You may know just what I am referring to when the oppression over your life caused through the mental bondage is so great that you find it impossible to string a sentence together to describe what you are passing through. To turn to God for some form of encouragement in your isolation is all you can do.

But here is the good news!! There comes a time that your life is permanently filled with hope because the habit of seeking God and hiding in Him alone results in a faith-confidence. You know the certainty of being able to find comfort, encouragement and endurance in God no matter what you are passing through.

WHAT IS HAPPENING IN THE WORLD AT PRESENT?

1. Violence and knife crime is on the increase, particularly in the west.
2. Family breakdown. Civil, ethnic and political unrest.
3. Deception – growing confusion, regarding beliefs and gender identity.
4. Growing belief in Universalism – all religions lead to God and no-one has the monopoly of TRUTH. A move to a one world religion.
5. People are sold into the lie of not giving offence to others, rather than upholding what they believe as truth, hence the rise of Political Correctness.
6. A move towards a One World government. The emergence of 'Deep State' with powerful secret societies, such as 'The Illuminati', manoeuvring across the world stage. Leaders in some secret societies dictate to country leaders who to put in power. Globalism is being promoted - through the irradiation of country borders and nationhood.

7. Federal Reserve. This is a private bank and is not monitored. These bankers want to help control the world and the finance system. They originally took gold from the Americas into the Federal Reserve for safe keeping but never returned it.
8. Famines and unprecedented migration. Earthquakes – more in the 20th century than in the previous 19 centuries. Many wars across every continent with thousands of innocent people and children killed.
9. Climate change involvement is becoming completely dominant in people's hearts and minds. Some theological students in New York are confessing their sins to plants! A generation is emerging that is worshipping creation rather than God the creator!

WHAT DOES JESUS CHRIST, GOD'S SON, HAVE TO SAY ABOUT ALL THIS? QUITE A LOT!

Jesus Christ's first coming was prophesied around 137 times in the Old Testament of the Bible hundreds of years before He was born in Bethlehem. There are over 200 prophecies regarding His Second Coming in both the Old and New Testaments.

Jesus lived for around 33 years, was then falsely accused and suffered by dying on the Cross outside Jerusalem around 2,000 years ago. There He died for you and me and God's anger for our sin was placed on Him. After Jesus died, He was placed in a tomb and three days later came back to life. He went back to heaven but promised to return to earth to take those who love Him to be with Him forever.

Jesus said in Matthew's gospel, Chapter 24, that the following would take place before He returns to the earth:-

1. False Christs and false prophets will appear.
2. Wars and rumours of wars.
3. Famines and earthquakes which will be like the beginning of labour pains.
4. Those who are followers of Jesus Christ will be hated and even put to death.

5. An increase in wickedness across the earth.
6. Many will turn away from the truth and betray each other.
7. Great distress - unequalled from the beginning of the world until now – will occur. Jesus, speaking of Himself, said, " 'the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from the sky, and the heavenly bodies will be shaken.' At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn because of Him. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory. And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other." (Matthew's gospel, Chapter 24:29-30). Why did they mourn? Because they were not prepared for His Coming!
8. Jesus warned His disciples to "keep watch" and to be aware of the times in which we live. He said: "No-one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son but only the Father. As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man." What was characteristic of those days? Violence and wickedness was rife and present in everyone's mind was only evil all the time.

PROCLAMATION FOR GOD'S PROTECTION by Derek Prince

NO WEAPON that is formed against me shall prosper and every tongue which rises against me in judgement I do condemn. This is my heritage as a servant of the Lord and my righteousness is from You, O Lord of Hosts. If there are those who have been speaking or praying against me, or seeking harm or evil to me, or who have rejected me, I forgive them. Having forgiven them, I bless them in the name of the Lord." *

NOW I DECLARE, O Lord, that You and You alone are my God, and besides You there is no other – a just God and a Saviour, the Father, the Son and the Spirit – and I worship You!

I SUBMIT myself afresh to You in unreserved obedience. Having submitted to You, Lord, I do as Your Word directs. I resist the devil: all his pressures, his attacks, his deceptions, every instrument or agent he would seek to use against me. I do not submit! I resist him, drive him from me and exclude him from me in the Name of Jesus. Specifically I reject and repel: infirmity, pain, infection, inflammation, malignancies, allergies, viruses, and every form of witchcraft.

FINALLY, LORD, I thank You that through the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross, I have passed out from under the curse and entered into the blessing of Abraham whom You blessed in all things:** exaltation, health, reproductiveness, prosperity, victory and God's favour. AMEN

We are continuing to insert in the Weekly Encourager some powerful Scriptures to read, memorise and meditate on for USE in your prayer battle to drive out the demon of schizophrenia. By so doing your confidence in the LORD JESUS CHRIST will grow because the words will impart "spirit and life" into your spirit, and so equip you in your fight for freedom to know the deliverance and healing of JESUS CHRIST.

(Jesus said): "If you love me, you will obey what I command. I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counsellor to be with you for ever – the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives with you and will be in you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you." John 14:15-18

May your unfailing love come to me, O LORD, your salvation according to your promise; then I will answer the one who taunts me, for I trust in your word. Do not snatch the word of truth from my mouth, for I have put my hope in your laws. Psalm 119:41-43

Those who live according to the sinful nature have their minds set on what nature desires; but those who live in accordance with the Spirit have their minds set on what the Spirit desires. The mind of sinful man is death, but the mind controlled by the Spirit is life and peace, because the sinful mind is hostile to God. It does not submit to God's law, nor can it do so. Those controlled by the sinful nature cannot please God. Romans 8: 5-8
