SCRIPTURAL ADVICE, HELP AND INSIGHT ON HOW TO TRUST THE LORD JESUS CHRIST TO DEFEAT SCHIZOPHRENIA FROM JAMES STACEY NOW CELEBRATING 34 YEARS OF FREEDOM FROM THE DEMONIC BONDAGE AND OVER 36 YEARS OFF ALL ANTI-PSYCHOTIC MEDICATION

GOD'S GUIDING HAND IS MIGHTY AS YOU FIGHT SCHIZOPHRENIA'S UNTRIED WAY

THIS WEEK'S SELECTED BIBLE READING IS JOHN CHAPTER 16: Key Verses 5-16: The Work of the Holy Spirit:

(Jesus said) "Now I am going to him who sent me, yet none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' Because I have said these things, you are filled with grief. But I tell you the truth: It is for your good that I am going away. Unless I go away, the Counsellor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. When he comes, he will convict the world of guilt in regard to sin and righteousness and judgment: in regard to sin, because men do not believe in me; in regard to righteousness, because I am going to the Father, where you can see me no longer; and in regard to judgment, because the prince of this world now stands condemned. I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear. But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. He will bring glory to me by taking from what is mine and making it known to you. All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will take from what is mine and make it known to you. In a little while you will see me no more, and then after a little while you will see me."

There is nothing more necessary to a Christian who is suddenly thrown into the condition of schizophrenia than to know Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord.

While the pathway of life is untried for us all, utter confusion and uncertainty surrounds the daily steps of a believer who struggles more than most to break free of such a pressing bondage.

Knowing Jesus Christ as the Way, the Truth and the Life imparts to you spiritual knowledge and wisdom through the indwelling Holy Spirit that alone can help you steer a course through this mental maze of imprisonment.

I am absolutely certain that the powerful ministry of the Holy Spirit, equipped me, strengthened me, and prayed within me, to keep the evil of schizophrenia from overpowering me – and then empowered me to evict it in the Name of Jesus.

Keep hold of this fact – your relationship with Jesus makes it possible to both withstand the hell of schizophrenia attacking your mind, imparting divine revelation about the Satanic evil that has invaded your life, as well as equipping you with the power of the Holy Spirit through faith to command, drive out and defeat for good that dark presence and restore your life back to full, perfect freedom.

Let's consider the importance of the words of Jesus found in our Bible Chapter for this week and in particular: "When He the Spirit of truth is come, He will guide you into all truth."

Truth about what? The truth about Jesus and God! The truth about yourself! The truth about defeating the evil behind the condition of schizophrenia. Praise God, the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Truth – and how much we need His truth flowing into our lives.

I marvel that after over more than a third of a lifetime, the Holy Spirit – the living Presence of Jesus – was still ministering truth into my spirit and mind, finally to penetrate all the evil behind schizophrenia. That truth became so powerful to active, conscious and living faith. It resulted in bold aggression asserting my authority in Jesus Christ intent on driving out a nest of evil intruders namely key spirits of rejection, religious spirit and schizophrenia and others who thought they could stay unopposed in my life.

I trust that you know the richness of the ongoing ministry of the Holy Spirit as you seek to win through and defeat schizophrenia. You will need the wisdom and knowledge of the Holy Spirit to guide you into all truth. Remember, Jesus Christ not only comes inside your life through His precious indwelling Holy Spirit when crowned as your Lord and Saviour but He remains with you forever (John 14:16).

NOTICE: 1. THE STRENGTH OF KNOWING GOD'S GUIDING HAND MAKES YOU STRONGER THAN THE POWER OF ANY DEMON OF SCHIZOPHRENIA. "The Lord your God is with you, he is mighty to save. He will take great delight in you, he will quiet you with his love, he will rejoice over you with singing." (Zephaniah 3: 17). I heard a liberal Christian say on the radio the other day that it was upsetting for a Christian to be told they were demonised by an evil spirit. Not so! If the presence of an evil spirit is causing you a permanent bondage in your life, surely it is to your advantage to be told so and know it. You can fight a lot better when you know who your enemy is. Because the Holy Spirit guides a Christian into all truth, He has the ability to reveal to you the root cause of a bondage which needs breaking. Receiving the ministry of the Holy Spirit places you in a position where you prevent your life being destroyed because of lack of knowledge. (see Hosea 3:6).

Your whole course of life can change forever by receiving the teaching from the Holy Spirit concerning the evil nature of the mental bondage troubling you. The light and truth received from the Word of God will begin to expose the darkness within. Remember, the words of Jesus are "spirit and life" (see John 6: 63), and abiding in him (see John 15:5) pours His light and truth into your life.

2. THE SECURITY OF KNOWING GOD'S GUIDING HAND CAUSES YOU TO EXERT FULL TRUST IN GOD. Take note of John 1:12: "Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God." There is real spiritual power to be obtained through trusting in the grace of God. Faith is power. Because you know your life is in the hands of God you trust Him to bring you through life as a whole, even though it is blighted at the moment by a condition of schizophrenia. Faith stirs in your spirit to believe that the power of the Kingdom of God within you can triumph over this unknown and strange enemy trying to enlarge its hold over your life.

What takes place in your life when you are suddenly "taken over" by a spirit of schizophrenia? Where do you turn? What greater refuge can you seek except in the One in whom you already believe, namely, the dear Son of God, Jesus Christ, who has forgiven your sins and imparted His gift of eternal life to you. What immediately takes place is the commencement of a spiritual war right on the doorstep of your life where the first thing you realise is that your thought life is not as free as it used to be. There is now "another voice" present in your mind that makes life totally confusing. What should you do? The only course of action at such a time is to turn to God wholeheartedly and present your dilemma to him. Call out to God, again and again, by whatever means you can and He will hear and answer you! Plead the blood of Jesus and his intervention!

3. THE SAFETY OF GOD'S GUIDING HAND WILL ALWAYS CONTINUE FOR THE WHOLE OF YOUR LIFE! I have a very old decorative text hanging on a wall in my garden shed which has been a source of blessing over the years. It reads: "He knows the untried way, He sees each step ahead. And by His guiding hand, You will be safely led." After giving the disciples The Great Commission, Jesus said: "...And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age". (Matthew 28:20). His continuing presence guarantees His continuing guiding hand. No matter what may befall you in life, even the pressure of schizophrenia, you can experience the safety of His guiding hand on your life. While you press in to defeat the spirit of schizophrenia you can do so in the full and certain knowledge that God will guide you in all you do and you can rest in His safety and keeping. The condition of schizophrenia causes a Christian to have a restless existence, but press in to experience the working of the Word of God in your life and even the pouring out of the rest of the Holy Spirit as you hear His voice and through faith drive out and defeat every other strange voice.

The battle of schizophrenia is between the darkness of the evil spirit seeking to rampage in your mind versus the power of your will fortified by the faith of the Lord Jesus Christ living in your heart. Christians have to be strong soldiers of Jesus Christ armed with all the heavenly armour God has provided (see Ephesians 6) in their fight to obtain freedom. Sometimes it can be like a life or death struggle! I don't think that Christians have to fight for their freedom more so than when they suffer with schizophrenia. That's why you need prayer to sustain you. It should never be the case that a Christian church group is lost to know what to pray when one of their friends has schizophrenia. The issue of endurance and perseverance are two areas that need to be focused on in prayer just to keep any believer surviving. Living with the quickening Word of God rising in faith in your heart makes you strong and it builds up your confidence in the Lord Jesus Christ. Your long-awaited freedom from schizophrenia is assured through God's faithfulness and power to bestow it – a freedom well worth waiting for when it bursts on your life!

Not unto us, O LORD, not to us but to your name be the glory, because of your love and faithfulness.

Psalm 115, verse 1

IF YOU HAVE NEVER INVITED JESUS CHRIST INTO YOUR LIFE, AND WISH TO, DO PRAY THE FOLLOWING PRAYER WITH ALL YOUR HEART: "Lord God Almighty, I approach you in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ. I know I have sinned in my thoughts, words and actions. There are so many good things I have not done. There are so many sinful things I have done. I am truly sorry for the sinfulness in my life, but most of all I acknowledge the sin that separates me from you. I accept the death of Jesus on the Cross to redeem me and extend the gift of eternal life. Gratefully, I give my life back to you as I now ask you to come into my life. Come in as my Saviour and Lord and cleanse me. Come in as my Lord to control me. Come with the strength of your grace and the power of your Spirit to defeat the evil spirit of schizophrenia that troubles me. Now you have set my spirit free, pour your delivering and healing power into my life as I take authority in the name of Jesus through the power of his blood over the intruding force. I assert your ownership of my life and resist any legal right that the devil seeks to hold over my life and bind up and expel any evil presence. I believe that my mind can be completely set free and my whole life enjoy the total freedom of Jesus. Amen.

My body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, redeemed, cleansed, by the blood of Jesus. ⁶

Satan has no place in me, no power over me, through the blood of Jesus.

² Ephesians 1:7
In Him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace . . .

Fighting For My Sanity Was A Life-and-Death Struggle

by Guest Writer Peter Laue

from Pagosa Springs, Colorado, USA, the founder of www.stretcherbearers.com and also a partner and supporter of Pray Until Schizophrenia Heals.

THIS WEEK'S BIBLE READING IS LUKE CHAPTER 23: Selected Verses 26-56 – The Crucifixion: As they led him away, they seized Simon from Cyrene, who was on his way in from the country, and put the cross on him and made him carry it behind Jesus. A large number of people followed him, including women who mourned and wailed for him. Jesus turned and said to them, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep for yourselves and for your children. For the time will come when you will say, 'Blessed are the barren women, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!' Then "they will say to the mountains, "Fall on us!" and to the hills "Cover us!" For if men do these things when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?" '

Two other men, both criminals, were also led with him to be executed. When they came to the place called the Skull, there they crucified him, along with the criminals – one on his right, the other on his left. Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." And they divided up his clothes by casting lots.

The people stood watching and the rulers even sneered at him. They said, "He saved others: let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One."

The soldiers also came up and mocked him. They offered him wine vinegar and said, "If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself."

There was a written notice above him, which read: THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

One of the criminals who hung there hurled insults at him: "Aren't you the Christ? Save yourself and us!"

But the other criminal rebuked him. "Don't you fear God," he said, "since you are under the same sentence? We are punished justly, for we are getting what our deeds deserve. But this man has done nothing wrong."

Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

Jesus answered him, "I tell you the truth, today you will be with me in paradise."

Jesus' Death: It was about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour, for the sun stopped shining. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two. Jesus called out in a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit." When he had said this, he breathed his last.

The centurion, seeing what had happened, praised God and said, "Surely this was a righteous man." When all the people who had gathered to witness this sight saw what took place, they beat their breasts and went away. But all those who had followed him from Galilee stood at a distance, watching these things.

Jesus' Burial – Now there was a man named Joseph, a member of the Council, a good and upright man, who had not consented to their decision and action. He came from the Judean town of Arimathea and he was waiting for the kingdom of God. Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus' body. Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen cloth and placed it in a tomb cut in the rock, one in which no-one had yet been laid. It was Preparation Day, and the Sabbath was about to begin.

The women who had come with Jesus from Galilee followed Joseph and saw the tomb and how his body was laid in it. Then they went home and prepared spices and perfumes. But they rested on the Sabbath in obedience to the commandment.

Fighting for my sanity was a life-and-death struggle. It was a struggle that lasted many years. I saw things and thought things that caused my mind to resemble a courtroom in continuous session. Sometimes I was the accused, sometimes the accuser. At other times I was the judge or jury. My thought process was compelling, relentless, emotionally charged, exhausting, and totally unproductive. For a brief period I was on medication. It did not solve my problems, but it may have kept me from doing something stupid. For this I am very grateful. Much like an aspirin, it provided temporary relief for a bad headache. But it was the Word of God and the grace of God that eventually created order out of chaos. Only as I believed the Word and obeyed it, was peace and order restored to my mind.

The significant turning point came when I became convinced that God was not the author of my accusing, confusing, grandiose, and tormenting thoughts and emotions. When I began to police them and adopted a militant posture, I began to heal. Healing came gradually. I learned to identify my enemies more and more quickly and developed a variety of strategies in dealing with them. I cut them off at the pass, so to speak, and did not allow them to gain an inch of ground. After an exhausting battle, I soothed my emotions by playing music like King David might have played.

I discovered that the only way I could be an alert and effective soldier was to do away with all tranquilizers and mind and mood-altering drugs. This strategy is certainly not new, but it was new for me. I never wavered in my decision to throw out all medication that had been prescribed. Mind and mood-altering drugs, both legal and illegal ones, are like chemical bullets that can misfire and cause debilitating side effects. Even innocent-looking sleeping pills can cause havoc. Violent and unpredictable behavior has been traced to the sleeping medication Halcyon. Our personalities can be altered and sabotaged without our knowledge or permission. Enslaved by drugs, we can experience a false sense of security and wellbeing and turn into wimps instead of warriors.

I did not hide in bed, reach for a sleeping pill, cigarette, alcoholic beverage or run to the television when wrestling with raging and ungodly thoughts. I got out of bed in the middle of the night and got dressed. I walked; I marched and I prayed my heart out in a secluded meadow. With all my heart and might I called upon the name of Jesus. Today, many years and many battles later, my life is filled with joy, peace and gratitude. Yet, I am reminded daily to never let my guard down. Adversity continues to be my taskmaster and teacher.

At the time I was hospitalized in 1970 courts could not mandate that mental patients had to submit to drug therapy in or out of institutions. Unfortunately that has gradually changed over the years. Had that ruling not been in place when I was hospitalized, I would be a compliant patient today, instead of a crusader for the mentally disadvantaged. I realize that these are strong words. Do not accept them or offer them to others unless the Holy Spirit explicitly prompts you to do so. They are not intended to make anyone feel guilty or condemn them for taking drugs, but to serve as a challenge and door to permanent freedom.

On numerous occasions I asked Jesus why this battle for my sanity was so lengthy and difficult. He always replied with these same words:

“These battles build character, insight, compassion, perseverance and many other qualities that a courageous soldier and a compassionate physician needs. Peter, you would not have a story to tell if you did not have to battle for your sanity. Because you have been in this lengthy conflict with hell, your uncrucified ego, and the lust of your own flesh, I can trust you with keys and weapons of warfare that you can use and also pass on to others.”

I will quote from one of my favorite authors, Frances J. Roberts, to underscore what I have written. In her book, “Come Away My Beloved,” she writes on page 93:

"You cannot risk giving your thoughts free rein. They will never choose the right path until you bridle them and control them by your own disciplined will. You are master of your own house. You do not have to invite into your mind the foul birds of evil thoughts and allow them to nest there and bring forth their young.

Whatever ye sow in your secret thought-life, that shall ye reap. Sow love and kindness, and ye shall be rewarded openly. Sow charity and forgiveness, and ye shall reap in kind. Sow generosity and gratitude, and ye shall reap in kind. Sow generosity, and ye shall never feel poor. Sow hope, and ye shall reap fulfilment. Sow praise, and ye shall reap joy and well-being and a strong faith. Sow bountifully, and ye shall reap bountifully. Sow! ye shall see your seed and be satisfied."

I am willing to expose my own captivity, my own season of delusional thinking, to be able to convince others that there is a way out. The Book of Daniel, Chapter 4, tells my story and maybe yours also. I can easily place the name of Peter D. Laue alongside the name of King Nebuchadnezzar. The last verse of Chapter 4 could have just as easily read:

"Now, I, Peter D. Laue, praise and glorify and honor the King of Heaven, the Judge of all, whose every act is right and good; for He is able to take those who walk proudly and push them into the dust!" The story of King Nebuchadnezzar is to remind and warn us that God's penalty for pride may be and often is insanity. We must not think of ourselves more highly than we ought to (Romans 12:3).

WHAT IS HAPPENING IN THE WORLD AT PRESENT?

1. Violence and knife crime is on the increase, particularly in the west.
2. Family breakdown. Civil, ethnic and political unrest.
3. Deception - growing confusion, regarding beliefs and gender identity.
4. Growing belief in Universalism - all religions lead to God and no-one has the monopoly of TRUTH. A move to a one world religion.
5. People are sold into the lie of not giving offence to others, rather than upholding what they believe as truth, hence the rise of Political Correctness.
6. A move towards a One World government. The emergence of 'Deep State' with powerful secret societies, such as 'The Illuminati', manoeuvring across the world stage. Leaders in some secret societies dictate to country leaders who to put in power. Globalism is being promoted - through the irradiation of country borders and nationhood.

7. Federal Reserve. This is a private bank and is not monitored. These bankers want to help control the world and the finance system. They originally took gold from the Americas into the Federal Reserve for safe keeping but never returned it.
8. Famines and unprecedented migration. Earthquakes - more in the 20th century than in the previous 19 centuries. Many wars across every continent with thousands of innocent people and children killed.
9. Climate change involvement is becoming completely dominant in people's hearts and minds. Some theological students in New York are confessing their sins to plants! A generation is emerging that is worshipping creation rather than God the creator!

WHAT DOES JESUS CHRIST, GOD'S SON, HAVE TO SAY ABOUT ALL THIS? QUITE A LOT!

Jesus Christ's first coming was prophesied around 137 times in the Old Testament of the Bible hundreds of years before He was born in Bethlehem. There are over 200 prophecies regarding His Second Coming in both the Old and New Testaments.

Jesus lived for around 33 years, was then falsely accused and suffered by dying on the Cross outside Jerusalem around 2,000 years ago. There He died for you and me and God's anger for our sin was placed on Him. After Jesus died, He was placed in a tomb and three days later came back to life. He went back to heaven but promised to return to earth to take those who love Him to be with Him forever.

Jesus said in Matthew's gospel, Chapter 24, that the following would take place before He returns to the earth:-

1. False Christs and false prophets will appear.
2. Wars and rumours of wars.
3. Famines and earthquakes which will be like the beginning of labour pains.
4. Those who are followers of Jesus Christ will be hated and even put to death.
5. An increase in wickedness across the earth.
6. Many will turn away from the truth and betray each other.
7. Great distress - unequalled from the beginning of the world until now - will occur. Jesus, speaking of Himself, said, "the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from the sky, and the heavenly bodies will be shaken." At that time the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and all the nations of the earth will mourn because of Him. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with power and great glory. And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other." (Matthew's gospel, Chapter 24:29-30). Why did they mourn? Because they were not prepared for His Coming!
8. Jesus warned His disciples to "keep watch" and to be aware of the times in which we live. He said: "No-one knows about that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son but only the Father. As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man." What was characteristic of those days? Violence and wickedness was rife and present in everyone's mind was only evil all the time.

PROCLAMATION FOR GOD'S PROTECTION by Derek Prince

NO WEAPON that is formed against me shall prosper and every tongue which rises against me in judgement I do condemn. This is my heritage as a servant of the Lord and my righteousness is from You, O Lord of Hosts. If there are those who have been speaking or praying against me, or seeking harm or evil to me, or who have rejected me, I forgive them. Having forgiven them, I bless them in the name of the Lord." *

NOW I DECLARE, O Lord, that You and You alone are my God, and besides You there is no other – a just God and a Saviour, the Father, the Son and the Spirit – and I worship You!

I SUBMIT myself afresh to You in unreserved obedience. Having submitted to You, Lord, I do as Your Word directs. I resist the devil: all his pressures, his attacks, his deceptions, every instrument or agent he would seek to use against me. I do not submit! I resist him, drive him from me and exclude him from me in the Name of Jesus. Specifically I reject and repel: infirmity, pain, infection, inflammation, malignancies, allergies, viruses, and every form of witchcraft.

FINALLY, LORD, I thank You that through the sacrifice of Jesus on the cross, I have passed out from under the curse and entered into the blessing of Abraham whom You blessed in all things: exaltation, health, reproductiveness, prosperity, victory and God's favour. AMEN

We are continuing to insert in the Weekly Encourager some powerful Scriptures to read, memorise and meditate on for USE in your prayer battle to drive out the demon of schizophrenia. By so doing your confidence in the LORD JESUS CHRIST will grow because the words will impart "spirit and life" into your spirit, and so equip you in your fight for freedom to know the deliverance and healing of JESUS CHRIST.

Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, everyone who sins is a slave of sin. Now a slave has no permanent place in the family, but a son belongs to it for ever. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed." John 8: 34-36

The LORD will guide you always; he will satisfy your needs in a sun-scorched land and will strengthen your frame. You will be like a well-watered garden, like a spring whose waters never fail. Isaiah 58: 11

The God of peace will crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you. Romans 16: 20

You may be reading the Weekly Encourager for the first time and have stumbled across our website in a desperate search to break free of schizophrenia. Or every week you visit W.E. for encouragement and help to overcome this “monster” of mental illnesses and have been given REAL HOPE that the Lord Jesus is the only One to open the prison door to freedom in your life once and for all time. We encourage you to keep logging into the site as often as you can for scriptural advice as we continue to point to Jesus who is well-versed and tested in the area of setting captives free from a bondage that no-one else can conquer. Our website www.schizophreniadefeated.com seeks to magnify the dear Son of God who left the courts of heaven to come to our world and die for you and me on the Cross at a place called Calvary just outside Jerusalem over 2,000 years ago. In that sacrifice, he paid the punishment and penalty of your sin and mine and on the third day rose again as “The Resurrection and the Life”. He releases TODAY into your life and to anyone accepting his sacrifice, the same victorious life that brought him back from the dead, in the person of the Holy Spirit. Why not invite him into your life right now? It’s a life-transforming experience that you CAN REALLY KNOW – which is well able to defeat and conquer the hell of schizophrenia you struggle with, for good!
