

Repertory of Mental Qualities

QRep

ISIS

What is the QRep?

- The QRep has been created by Jeremy Sherr working in conjunction with Raphael Neu. (Raphael is an Israeli homeopath now living in England.)
- QRep is a repertory you can purchase to use with ISIS
- QRep provides a set of 28 mental Qualities each containing every remedy associated (inc. newly proven remedies not included in other repertories)—often there are hundreds of remedies associated with each quality.
- ISIS provides a graphical interface to the QRep for enhanced ease of use
- You can quickly repertorise using all the Qualities you observe in a case to see remedies that cover all of these qualities

QRep is an ideal complement to all existing repertories

Graphical Repertory Interface in ISIS!

Each quality selected marked as Eliminative

Ambition	Animals	Carers and helpers	Clairvoyance	Control	Dark
Divided, Doubled	Drug	Embarrassment	Failure	Female hormones	Guilt
High and Low	Home and House	Knives and Points	Light	Light and Dark	Low self esteem
Money	Music	Obsessive Compulsive Disorder	Opinion of others	Perfectionist	Snakes
Spiders	Trapped	Type-A	Victim	Water

ISIS provides on-screen information about each Quality

Home and House	Home and House For use where any home related issues are a theme of the case. This quality represents issues such as homesickness or a desire to leave home, including delusions and/or fears related to home. It includes houses but does not include issues resulting from being indoors.

The Problem Qrep solves

How to Find the right rubric

Example: Patient who cares too much about others, worries about them, and is burnt out from looking after them

What Rubrics To Use?

- Cares, full of, others about
- Sympathetic
- Anxiety others, for
- Anxiety - caretaking of others, from
- Weakness - nursing and staying up with sick person

QRep Quality: Carers and Helpers

Definition of the right rubric

‘The rubric that has the right remedy in it’

Repertory of Mental Qualities

The Mission:

- Create a repertory where the right rubric is easy to choose
- Create a repertory where the best available remedy must be in the chosen rubric

Repertory of Mental Qualities

The Mission:

Right rubrics + Rubrics with Right Remedy

= Right result

Repertory of Mental Qualities

Quality means individual characteristics of a person.

Dr Grimmer :

- “The best prescribers prescribe on the high-grade symptoms, the mental and moral states, the reaction of the patient to environment, heat and cold, aversions and desires, etc..
- Take those groups, and you don't have to use so many of them. Three or four general symptoms will frequently lead you to the three or four remedies you want to study more carefully in the materia medica.”

Kent

Less Generalisation

More well defined symptoms and modalities

Boger's method

Small rubrics with essential remedies only

Docteur C.M. Boger (1861-1935)

Bonninghausen Method

Use large general rubrics, where you are sure the remedy is in the rubric

Only then go to more characteristics, keynotes and particulars

Bonninghausen Method

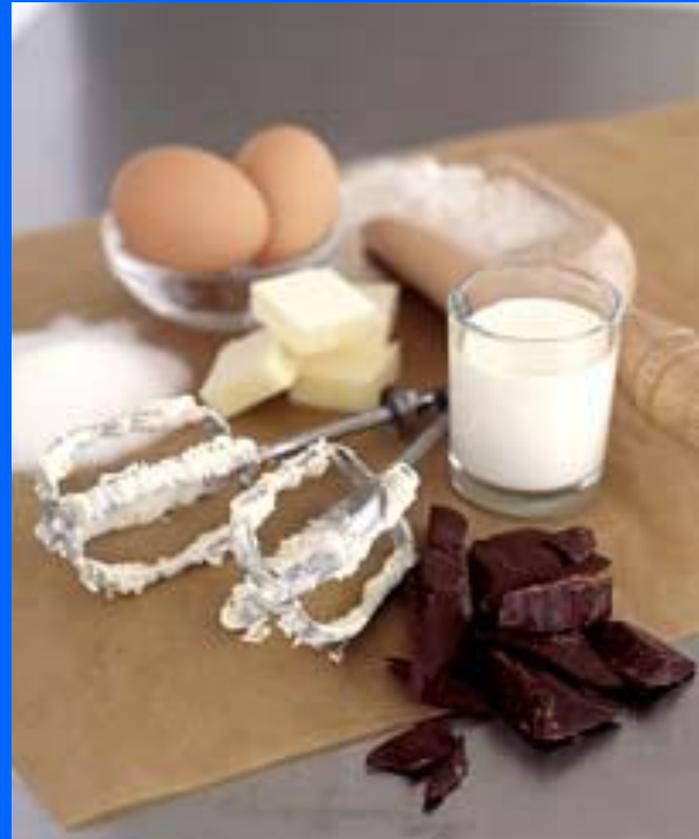

More certain results!

Best Approach

Method: First the Cake = Large Generalised Rubrics

- Water
- Flour
- Butter
- Sugar
- Eggs
- Chocolate

Then the icing!

Physical Affinities + any Strange, Rare and Peculiar

Work Wisely

- Start by using large and reliable rubrics you are certain about to repertorise to the main group of remedies
- Do not repertorise with small, unreliable, or with too many rubrics! Leave them for narrowing down your choice, or to check for small remedies

Materia Medica Searching = Misleading Results! Example : Falling

ABUSIVE - scolds until the lips are blue and eyes stare and she falls down fainting

COMA - eyelids; with falling of Analysis based on materia medica search results

- 1. Misleading data included by mistake
- 2. Results either too vague or over precise yielding poor remedy choice

"The Mind is a mine field"

Jeremy Sherr

Approach to building the QRep

Create useful rubrics for Mental Qualities

Rubrics you need in every day practice

Rubrics of high quality

With an emphasis on accuracy

Rubrics with all the latest information

But only reliable information!

Rubrics you can count on!

The kind of Rubrics you need every day!

- Perfectionist
- Control
- Divided-double
- Guilt
- Obsessive compulsive
- Failure
- Ambition
- Embarrassment
- Opinion of others
- Knives and points
- Home
- Water
- Type-A
- Money
- Animals
- Low self esteem
- Victim
- Carers and Helpers
- Snakes

- Every remedy checked by a team of homoeopaths
- Every remedy checked to source: proving, cases, authors etc
- No automatic combining of rubrics
- No automatic inclusion of families based on generalizations
- Jeremy's clinical additions and 28 years of experience

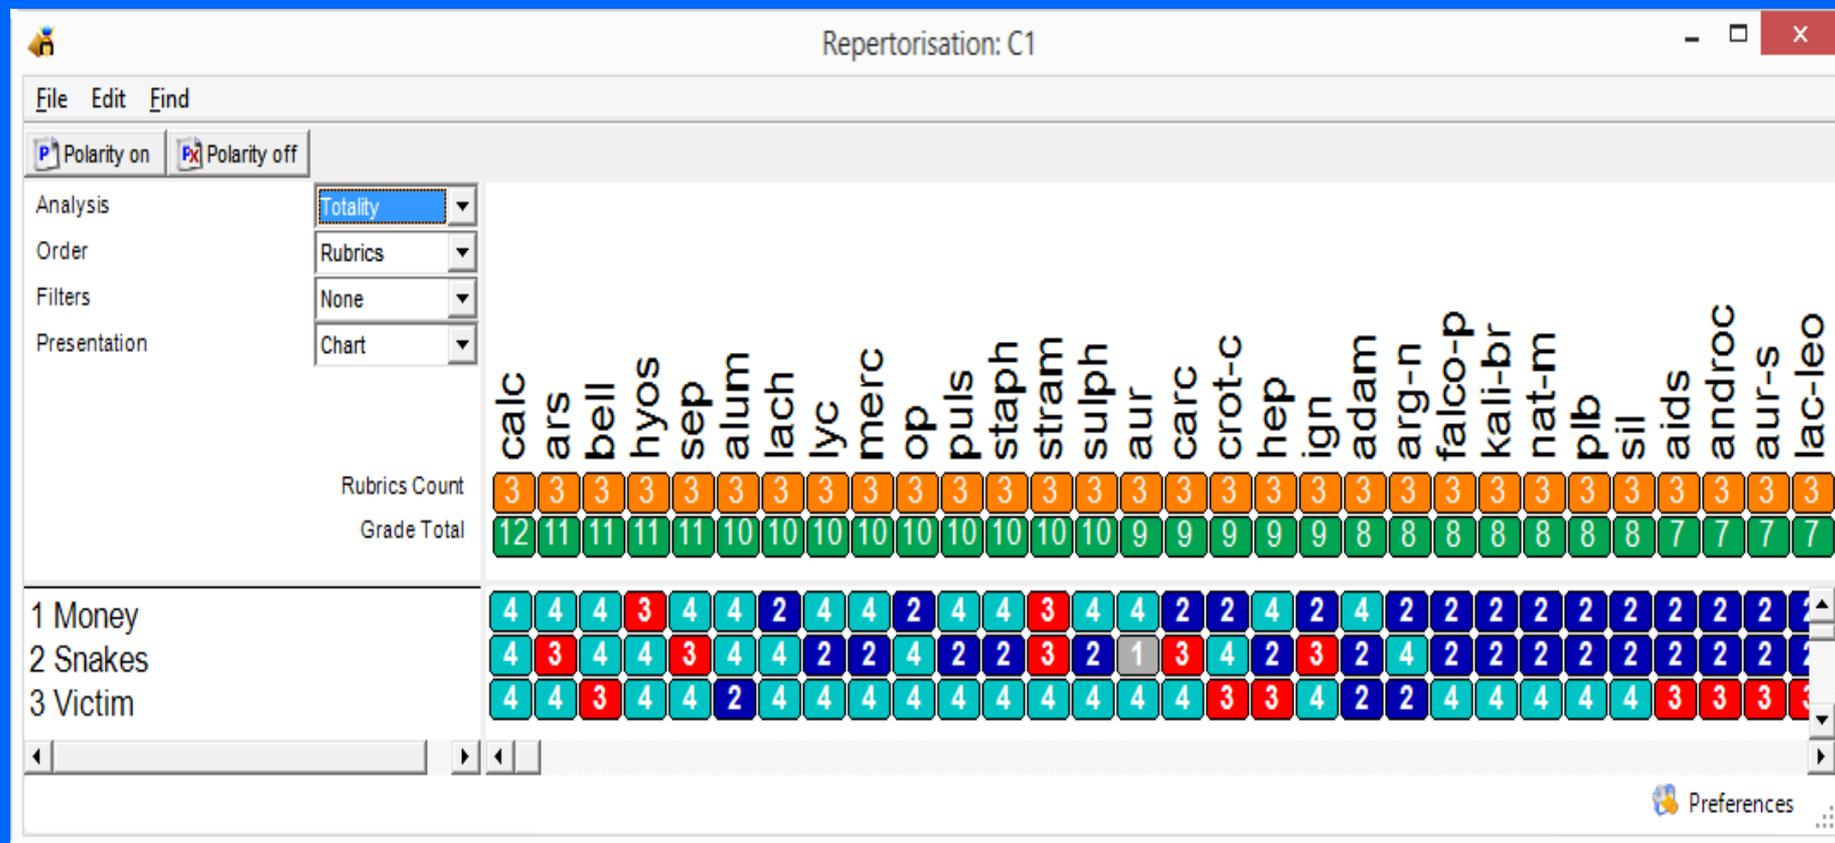

Many new provings still not found in other repertories

Rx Grades/Degrees by Quality

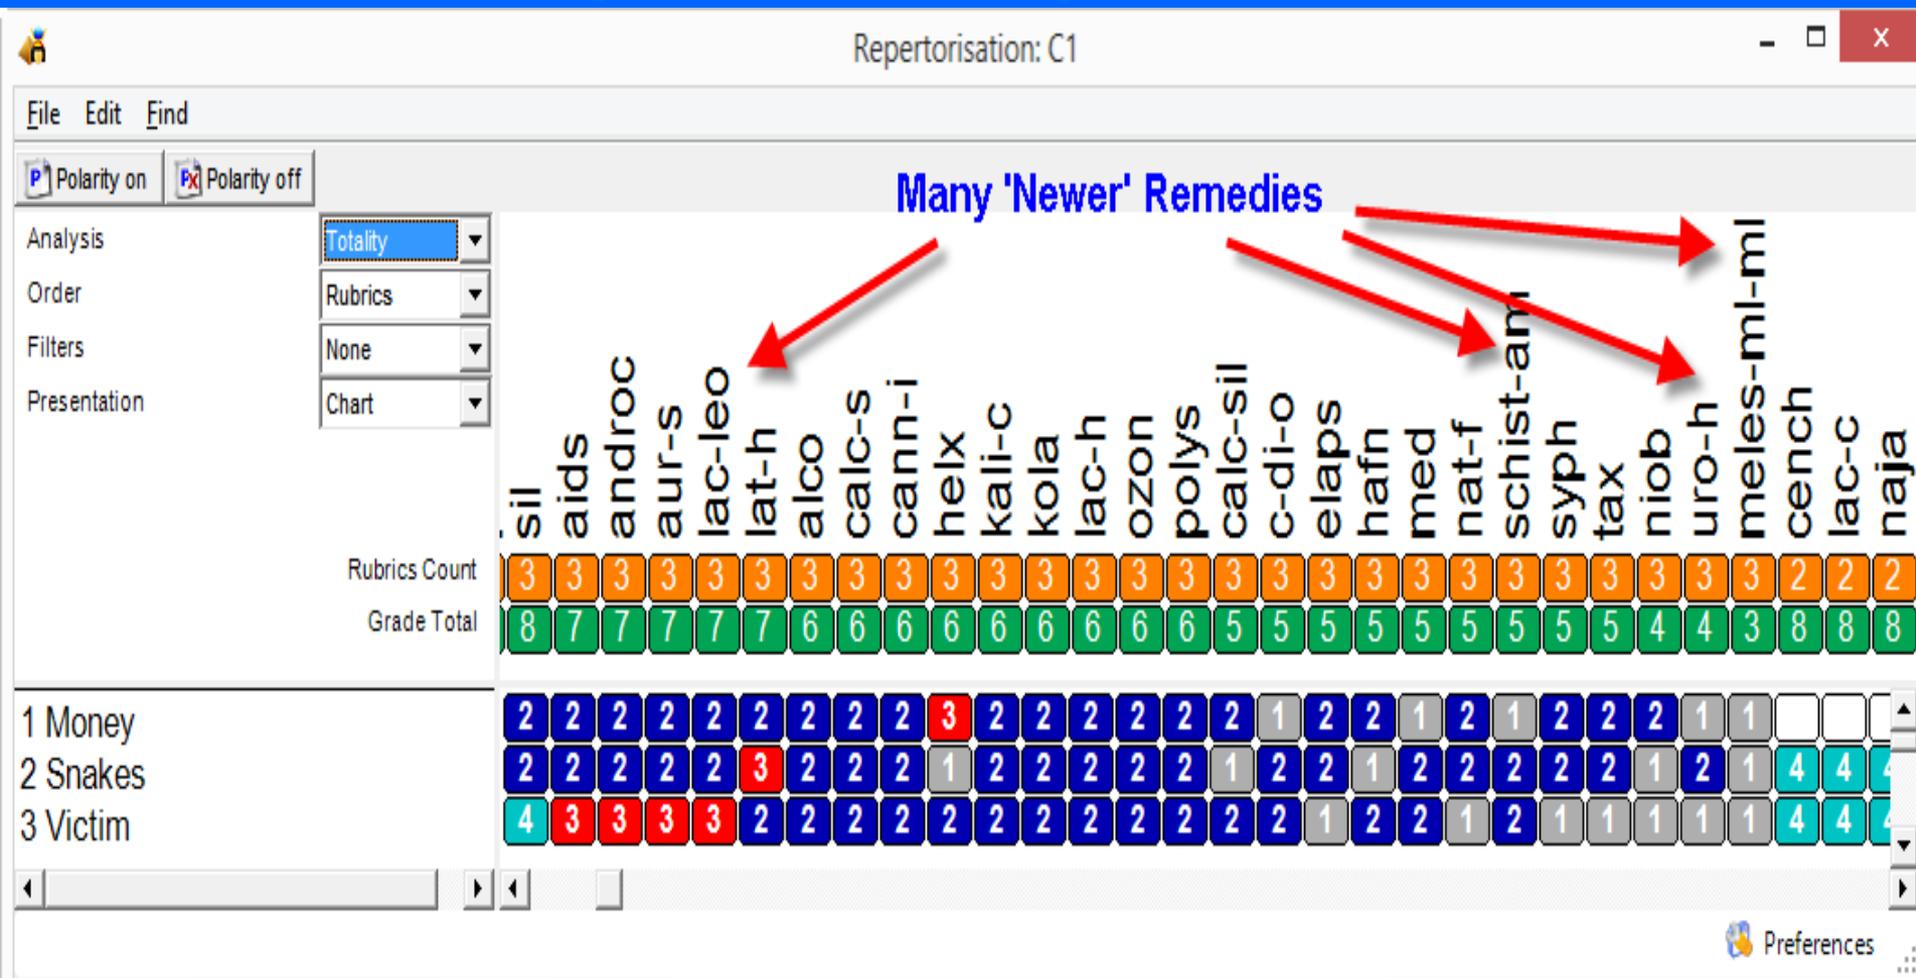

- 4 BOLD- essential part of remedy
- 3 Bold- experimental for 4th degree
- 2 All- possible remedies for this Quality
- 1 Experimental -possible additions

Add a general rubric for any physical 'affinity' and the group of remedies is more manageable

Caution : If you include a rubric from any other repertory then:

1. You will nearly always lose newly proven remedies that are included in QRep (as a huge number of these new remedies are still not present in any other repertory)
2. If you use Phatak or Boger affinities then your remedies will always be well indicated polycrests only

Both above are fine if that is how you wish to work

Jeremy personally recommends reviewing each remedy that covers all qualities in a case (even if that means reviewing 30 remedies!)

Qrep also contains Family groups

- Aur-XX
- Alum-XX
- Carbs-XX
- Arg-XX
- Snakes-XX
- Gems-XX
- Lacs-XX
- Noble gases-XX

The screenshot shows the 'Repertorisation: C1' software interface. The main window displays a grid of rubric counts for various substances and symptoms. The substances listed are: musc-d, polys, vanil, agar, agath-a, aur-m, cann-i, lsd, nat-p, schist-gg, tarent, tax, carbons, cic, clad-r, kali-p, lac-f, petr, and tritic-vg. The symptoms listed are: 1 Victim, 2 Carers and helpers, 3 Obsessive Compulsive Disorder, and 4 Home and House. The 'carbons' column is highlighted with a blue oval and two red arrows pointing to it. The grid shows the following counts for the 'carbons' column:

The screenshot shows the 'Repertorisation: C1, Carbons' window. The interface includes a menu bar (File, Edit, Find), a toolbar with 'Polarity on' and 'Polarity off' buttons, and a sidebar with filters for Analysis, Order, Filters, and Presentation. The 'Analysis' filter is set to 'Eliminating'. Below the sidebar, a list of categories is shown: 1 Victim, 2 Carers and helpers, 3 Obsessive Compulsive Disorder, and 4 Home and House. The main area displays a grid of counts for five remedies: calc, kali-c, bar-c, adam, and petr. The grid is organized into two rows: 'Rubrics Count' (orange boxes) and 'Eliminating Total' (green boxes). Below these, a 4x5 grid of colored boxes shows counts for each category across the remedies.

Improve your results!

Benefits of the QRep

Confidence : You can be confident that once you have chosen all the Qualities in your case that the required remedy is definitely in the list! (Unlike when using other repertories when you may lose the required remedy when you take your very first rubric in a case!)

Timesaving : QRep is an essential shortcut to selection of mental rubrics – there is no need to decide on the exact mental rubrics to use – use all the Qualities you see in the case. This takes away all the time searching for and selecting the exact rubric that may be required.

Focus : Even when there might be 30 remedies all covering the qualities your work can be better focused as it gives you time to focus on differentiating between remedies rather than the process of repertorisation

No Extra Work : Helps avoid the need to combine several rubrics from other repertories to make sure you 'cover' all of the required remedies. Minimises having to search materia medica to cross check all the time and creating new rubrics from materia medica searches

New Remedies : Use even newly proven remedies with confidence

= Better Results !
