

Painting Waffen SS Oak Camo - The Easy Guide

Suggested colours

Smock base colour: Vallejo Brown Violet 887

Dark Base: Vallejo Black Green 980

Bright Green: German Cam. Bright Green 833

Part 1 & 2. Paint your smock a pale brown colour, allow to dry and select you dark shade and mimic the pattern below:

Painting Waffen SS Oak Camo Part 2: Dark shapes over brown.
The pattern can be used front and rear. Note how dark pattern travels under belt.

Part 3. Then take your bright green and paint inside the dark green areas.

Painting Waffen SS Camo Part 3: Highlight.

In the larger areas of dark clouds, paint a bright/mid green/orang inside the dark shapes. Leave the smaller dark shapes untouched.

Part 4. Reapply a few dots of dark colour inside the bright green

Painting SS Camo Part 4:
Add dots of the original dark colour inside the larger areas of the bright green.

Part 5. If you want mix a brighter green and add a few other dots in raised areas, and paint dark dots on the brown area.

Painting SS Camo Part 5: (Optional)
Using the dark colour, add lots of small dots in the remaining brown areas.
Using a very bright green, paint a few small dots on top of the bright green.

Sorry about the basic nature of the images, probably easier to follow though.
