The Area

Hornsea is a small picturesque seaside town situated on the east coast of Yorkshire, midway between Flamborough Head and Spurn Point. It has a newly developed promenade and glorious sandy beaches.

The town is home to Hornsea Freeport, a factory outlet with over 30 discount stores, a Soft Play area, climbing wall & water walkerz.

Yorkshire's largest fresh-water mere and bird sanctuary is a popular tourist attraction located in the town, offering visitors rowing, sailing, boat trips and fishing.

Hornsea also has a Leisure Centre, Little Rascals indoor play centre, amusement arcades and a good choice of restaurants and pubs—all just a few minutes walk from Longbeach.

Just outside Hornsea you will find the very popular Honeysuckle Farm, a working farm loved by children and adults of all ages, and Mr Moos Ice-Cream Parlour.
