The Area

Hornsea is a small picturesque seaside town situated on the east coast of Yorkshire, midway between Flamborough Head and Spurn Point. It has a newly developed promenade and glorious sandy beaches.

The town is home to Hornsea Freeport, a factory outlet with over 30 discount stores, a large soft play indoor and outdoor play area and Bugtopia, an interactive way of learning all about bugs!

Yorkshire's largest fresh-water mere and bird sanctuary is a popular tourist attraction located in the town, offering visitors rowing, sailing, boat trips and fishing as well as a delightful café with wonderful views of the Mere.

Hornsea also has a supermarket, Leisure Centre, Little Rascals indoor play centre, amusement arcades and a good choice of shops, restaurants and pubs—all just a few minutes walk from Longbeach.

Just outside Hornsea you will find the very popular Honeysuckle Farm, a working farm loved by children and adults of all ages, and Mr Moos Ice-Cream Parlour.
