

the milton Larder

262, Milton Road, Weston Super Mare, BS22 8EN

Basic trading terms for Cold food hospitality supply

- The “We” within these terms and conditions constitutes “Milton Larder ltd.” trading address as above.
- We will accept all HACCP responsibility, monitoring and recording of production and delivery temperatures, only until the point of delivery and acceptance by the client.
- We expect all non-disposable buffet service ware to be returned, or made available for collection at a specified agreed time. Any loss or damage will incur a levy of £2.50 per item.
- We reserve the right to change or amend any aspect of menu choice ordered by the customer, if affected by either supply or seasonality. We will always endeavour to inform the client as soon as possible.
- We fully expect to be advised by the customer, upon ordering, of any members of the party who may have food intolerances or allergies, so that we can adapt and advise accordingly.
- We reserve the right to either change or adapt our menu in the event of any order undertaken that does not meet the minimum ordering cut off time.
- In buffet menus that offer “a selection of” and do not stipulate content, we reserve the right to use ingredients and fillings of our choice, in line with seasonality and market availability.
- We expect remittance of invoices strictly within 14 days of issue, unless by prior agreement. Payment details are below
- All delivered buffets are subject to 20% VAT

Signed as acceptedPrint.....

Position.....Organisation.....

Bacs payments details upon request

Credit Card payments can be made by calling 01934 709545

Remittance and contact e-mail address themiltonlarder@outlook.com

Allergy information can be found at our website www.themiltonlarder.co.uk by clicking on the “about us” tab