I have just put together a load of packs of watch parts for those of you interested in steampunk. And it's all available on the Net. I particularly like this piece by Adria Fillion (below left) Christi Friesen has produced there is an absolute feast of free downloadable projects from Christi here "steampunk and lots more: Hearts do seem to be a dominating theme. Here's one by Valeriana Solaris http://www.flickr.com/photos/valeriana\_solaris/7432166280/ Here's a pendant on Artfire for sale: http://www.artfire.com/ext/shop/product\_view/strangewhimsy/3495409/antiqued\_steel\_toned\_steampur - easy to adapt! And here is a tutorial for sale on ArtFire. (I have bought tutorials from Beadcomber and they are very immaculate): <http://eugenascrations.blogspot.co.uk/2009/01/tutorial-steampunk-heart-pendants-new.html> If you like Marie Segal's work you can see some examples here <http://mariesegal.wordpress.com/tag/steampunk/> Breakwell, one of our clayday regulars, made at a recent workshop with Lisa Pavelka.

So â€“ we have little bags of watch pieces available on the website for you to experiment with. Try them with Guilderâ€™s paste on your projects, for effect. We are pleased to announce that we have more Fat Daddios (we sold most of our first batch in a week!) and replenishment of Helen Breilâ€™s stamps are due any time now. We also have some new stamps from Lisa Pavelka â€“ have a browse around <http://www.clayaround.com/index.php?cPath=29&osCsid=c026c7177cf8159737c88ae772b888d5>

Reminder- our next Clayday in Wales is on Saturday 28th
September
