

Corsley Tennis Club Court Booking Conditions

- a) Courts must be pre-booked using the on-line booking system or Ebooker app.
- b) The Club Member, or the Main Contact for Junior Members, making a court booking is the Responsible Person for all members of the playing group.
- c) A court may only be booked by a Responsible Person.
- d) A Responsible Person may make an unlimited number of bookings.
- e) Bookings may be made up to 14 days in advance.
- f) A Responsible Person may invite guests, including non-playing Members, who will become Temporary Members of Corsley Tennis Club for the duration of the booking, and will collect any guest fees due to the Club.
- g) A Responsible Person will ensure that all Members, full or Temporary, who play during the booking observe the Club Rules.
- h) Club sessions, League matches and Coaching will take precedence over any other bookings and will be made by the booking administrator – email: bookings@corsley-tennis.uk
- i) Misuse of the booking system may cause the Responsible Person to be barred from making bookings.
- j) When special restrictions apply, as advised by the Government or LTA, then the Responsible Person making a booking agrees to ensure the restrictions are observed by all players.
- k) The Responsible Person will ensure their booked court(s) are cleared of litter and properly locked at the end of their group play.
