

	Resume
	David Crossley (Chairman) – Current elected term to August 2019 – Nominated for re-election BA(Hons), MBA, FRSA. David moved to the village in 2014. He led three very different schools and was subsequently a Director of a large not for profit where he led a team responsible for major national school improvement programmes with a turnover of around £15million per annum. He is now an Education Consultant, has successfully run his own business since 2008 and is published author who supports schools and organisations nationally and internationally. His expertise includes leading and managing change, strategic financial management and staff development. He has a particular interest in sustainable quality. He believes the pub is a key asset that makes an important contribution to the community, making the village more than just a place where people live.
	Marilyn Madell (Treasurer) - Current elected term to August 2019 – Nominated for re-election Mal, with husband Les, has lived in the village for 34 years and remembers how easy it was to settle and feel at home here in Gussage All Saints thanks to the warmth and friendship found in The Drovers Inn, meeting neighbours from a variety of age groups and backgrounds. Mal’s main career was in Banking and Finance, with experience of domestic, commercial and international fields, covering administration, finance and budget control, personal & business lending, managing data operations and reconciliation, project management and marketing. She later ran a Recruitment Business sourcing both temporary and permanent staff from a multi-disciplined agency, a large sector being the Catering and Hospitality Industry. She has served as Treasurer of the Gussage Community Benefit Society Limited since it’s inception in April 2015, which has been an interesting and enlightening time, drawing on her skills from past experience and gaining further knowledge of new disciplines as this responsibility unveiled. Mal has indicated her willingness to stand for a further term of office, during which time she would be happy to share this knowledge with others.
	Justin Ward (Member) – Elected term to August 2020 After 42 years in the music profession Justin and his wife chose to move to Dorset, as his first job was in the Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra. He has lived in the village since 2012 having chosen Gussage All Saints because there was a lovely pub situated right in the middle - a social hub for all. As a newcomer, it was always very interesting to note that on mentioning Gussage All Saints so many people automatically reacted by mentioning ‘the Drovers’. After the pub’s closure there was been an incredible amount of work carried out to restore the pub and it continues to be the social hub that is essential for ensuring that village life has a focal point.
	Paul Charles Campbell Plumstead – Elected term to August 2020 Paul has lived in the local area for over 13 years and moved to Gussage All Saints 2009, he lives with his wife Sue and young son Thomas. He has been visiting the Drovers since 2005 and the pub was a major factor for him moving to the village. Paul runs his own consultancy which focuses on business transformation and change, his historic clients include the Met Office, HQ Land Command, Nutmeg, AJ Bell, James Hay, Old Mutual Wealth, Ascentric and Royal London. Paul's business skills, gained over 20 years, combined with his passion for ale will supplement the existing management committee skillsets, ensuring the Drovers for future generations.
	Amanda House – Elected term to August 2020 Amanda was born in Christchurch, Dorset and has mostly lived in and around this beautiful county. While her children were growing up, she was a school and then Headteacher’s secretary before moving on to run an engineering company’s office. In 2005 she moved to Gussage All Saints with her husband where the Drovers played an important part in their decision to choose this particular village to settle in. Together they own an aerospace engineering company where Amanda is Financial Director. As she likes nothing better than taking her dogs walking in the countryside she understands how nice it is to have a lovely destination such as the drovers for refreshments and a bite to eat.

	Martin Trott – Elected term to August 2021 Martin, with wife Di, has lived in the village for 18 years. They instantly fell in love with the village due to a combination of the then recently held Village fete and follow-up refreshments at the Drovers pub. From there onwards the Drovers soon became a frequent haunt, meeting neighbours from a variety of age groups and backgrounds. Martin's professional career has been in Mechanical Engineering culminating in his most recent appointment as a Systems Engineer in the Aerospace industry. This role encompasses budget control, project management, risk elimination, liaising with customers and colleagues alike and life cycle management - as well as a bit of Engineering! He has enjoyed and supported the Drovers since moving into GAS and especially appreciated its importance as a social hub after its period of closure.
	Sally Marlow (Member/Secretary) - Current elected term to August 2021 Sally has lived in Gussage All Saints since 1990 when she and husband Bob moved into the village and married in the Village Church. Throughout the years they have been regular users of The Drovers Inn even when standards of food and service were at their lowest ebb. It is the place where they caught up with friends and neighbours and made new friends. As a formally trained Marketing Professional Sally's career spanned a range of Marketing Management roles for a number of blue chip organisations. The last eight years prior to retirement were spent as a Principle Business Consultant and Resource Manager for a large American Software Company.
	Jill Allen (Member) Current elected term to August 2021 Jill has lived in the village since 1962 and worked at The Drovers from 1980-1992 for various landlords. She is now a retired but busy grandmother. As a long term resident Jill can clearly see the detrimental effect closure of The Drovers would have on the village. Being a steering committee member offers the chance to retain the pub on behalf of all the community in Gussage and the surrounding villages.
