

DIRECTIONS TO VENUE

SECURITY AT SHOWS:

The Kennel Club have asked all societies to stress the importance of security at dog shows. They understand that due to the nature of dog shows and the quantity of paraphernalia exhibitors bring, it would be extremely difficult for show organisers to take on the issue of security alone, therefore they re-iterated the advice being given by the Police and Security Services, that everyone in the UK should remain vigilant and this applies equally to those organising and taking part in dog shows. The KC also reminded us of the importance of the need for show organisers and exhibitors to remain mindful of potential dangers and that all visitors to shows generally need to be vigilant and alert.

Should you see anything suspicious or of concern, please alert the Show Manager, Mr. I. Hopper and/or the Show Secretary, Mrs. Tina Green immediately. If it is a package or bag you are concerned about, please do NOT attempt to move it or examine it yourself.

Should it be necessary for the hall to be evacuated, please remember that evacuation should be as speedy but as safely as possible, as in the case of a fire. It is important that you do not block the exit routes with cages or bags and that you follow any instructions given to you by the Show Management regarding evacuation procedures.
