Bored in Bramshall?

As a teenager, living in a small rural village, it's a challenge not to compare my surroundings to others. I have friends living in London who watch street performers on their way to school and spend their nights at West End Theatres. I've met kids my age who can walk five steps to their local shopping centre: who complain about the dilemma of choosing between the four cinemas to spend an evening at in a 2 mile radius from their home, and who are mortified at the fact that I don't have the option to hop on a train on a Sunday night for a last minute get together.

For a long time, I did believe that I had it worse. How was it fair that my closest neighbours were cows, or that my next best thing to a nightclub, for me, were Zumba classes at the village hall?

However, after living here for five years, I'm glad to have been brought up here. I love the fact that instead of being stuck with the noise of a busy road, I can hop across the lane and do my studies, sat on a blanket, in a field. In a big city, I could never get the freedom and serenity that is spending an evening outside, listening to the birds, watching the sunset and reading a novel. I'm also lucky to have all the cultural opportunities that my other friends have only a bus journey away, knowing that I can always come back to the peace and safety of my home. Most importantly I love the community we have here; the friendliness and approachability of everyone I come across walking to the bus stop or the park or the pub. Something I know I wouldn't find any place elsewhere.

In conclusion, I can state without a doubt that I am proud to live here and I'm certainly not bored in Bramshall.

Bramshall Art Group Exhibition - 24th & 25th June 2017

The weekend was very successful beginning with an enjoyable Preview Evening.

Despite the wet weather there was a steady flow of visitors on both days. 159 paintings were displayed covering a huge variety of subjects and media and 38 artworks were sold; a record for the Exhibition..

Homemade refreshments were available and a donation will be made from the proceeds to a local charity.

Thank you to all who visited and helped make the Exhibition a great success.

The 2017 Durose Gathering was held in the Parish Hall on Sunday 16th July from midday to 5.00pm.

Duroses have appeared in Bramshall parish records for over four hundred years and there are a number of Durose grave stones around the church yard.

Durose entries also appear in Gratwich, Kingstone, Leigh and Uttoxeter parish registers and around Staffordshire.

Duroses can now be found in Birmingham, Cheshire, Derbyshire, Lancashire, Lincolnshire, London, Nottinghamshire and Yorkshire. Some emigrated to the USA and one family went to the Falkland Islands.

Any Duroses or people with a Durose connection would be welcome at our Gathering next year.

Training began on 22nd of December 2016 - 6 times around the village highlighted the challenge ahead.

As the weeks and months passed they were running for up to 5 hours, 4 or 5 times a week averaging 14 miles a day. Also, Al meticulously studied a map of the IOW and this time was well spent (they were never lost in the race, as many were.

Al & Sam finished the first day in 9 hours 42 mins

PCC – the next meeting will be held in church on Monday 11th September at 7pm.

A warm WELCOME to all that have recently moved to Bramshall. We trust you have settled in and are getting your bearings on what goes on in our village through this news sheet, which is delivered free to all in the parish. Do let us know if we can be of assistance.

Preliminary work has commenced towards the construction of a new extension that will contain a toilet and kitchenette for the church. This initial phase has seen the demolition of the redundant lean-to building that used to contain an oil tank. The main work commences on Monday 14th August, so please be mindful of workmen and machinery on site and that there may be some restricted access around the north side of the church in particular.

Live & Local

Saturday 14th October 7.30pm:

Sarah Moule brings her 'Lady be Good' (The Ella Fitzgerald songbook) performance to the Parish Hall.

Tickets are priced at £9.50 and will be available from John & SallyAnne Lander soon (for bookings please call 565228).

Usual 'café style' so please bring your own drinks and nibbles.

'You don't sing with the perfection that is The John Wilson Orchestra for six years, as she has in the past, without massive talent and perfect technique, so that now, as a solo artist, Sarah Moule stands in the very top flight of UK singers.' Brian Blain, LondonJazz.com

2016 was an exciting and varied year for Sarah with performances with symphony orchestra and big bands, jazz quartet and duo with long time musical partner Simon Wallace. She sang Ellington at Brecon Jazz Festival with the Capital City Jazz Orchestra, and symphonic arrangements of Landesman/Wallace and Great American Songbook at Porthcawl Jazz Festival with the Rhondda Symphony Pops Orchestra. She was invited by the great octogenarian British tenor Duncan Lamont to perform material from his Songbooks alongside Norma Winstone MBE, celebrated Shakespeare's 4th Centenary singing John Dankworth's Shakespeare settings in the Music In Quiet Places Festival and took part in the 606 Club 40th Anniversary celebrations. In the EFG London Jazz Festival Sarah, composer/pianist Simon Wallace, Ian Shaw, Nicki Leighton-Thomas and Mick Hutton launched the Landesman/Wallace Songbook Volume One.

Neighbourhood Watch - What is anti-social behaviour?

It can mean different things to different people - but basically anti-social behaviour (ASB) is any kind of repeat behaviour that affects the quality of life for members of the community. It can be caused by people of all ages and from different backgrounds. It is not confined to young people.

Some examples:-

- large groups being rowdy and inconsiderate
- abusive language and behaviour
- underage drinking/drunkenness
- jumping and climbing on garage roofs or garden walls
- throwing items at vehicles or property
- playing 'chicken'
- bogus 999 calls
- dog fouling
- neighbour disputes
- drinking in parks

Many of these are classed as a criminal offence and can lead to prosecution. There will be regular patrols in your area by our dedicated anti-social behaviour team and your local officers. If you are experiencing any form of anti-social behaviour, contact us on 101 or speak to your local officers or Police Community Support Officers out on patrol. The PCSO for Bramshall is Craig Carroll.

A colorful poster for a theatrical performance. The background is a light grey shape resembling a stylized 'A' or a stage. The text is arranged vertically. At the top, "MAISY HEPBURN" is written in yellow, with "PRESENTS" in smaller yellow letters below it. The main title "A SHOW IN a WEEK" is in large, bold letters, with "A" in orange, "SHOW" in red, "IN a" in small blue letters, and "WEEK" in large blue letters. Below the title, the dates "14TH - 18TH OF AUGUST" and "FOR AGES 7 - 15 YEARS" are in red. The price "£125 PER CHILD" is in blue. The registration information "REGISTER YOUR INTEREST NOW AT 07449818153" is in red. At the bottom, "LIMITED AVAILABILITY!" is in red, followed by the website "WWW.MAISYFLOHEPBURN.CO.UK" and email "MAISYHEPBURN@HOTMAIL.COM" in blue. The poster is decorated with colorful geometric shapes and wavy lines.

I am a local girl (my family originate from Bramshall/still live there). I have sung extensively in Uttoxeter and surrounding areas for a very long time and at 15 left the local high school as I received a full scholarship as a classical singer to attend Chetham's School of Music in Manchester and from there then received scholarships to The Royal Conservatoire of Scotland and The Royal Northern College of music (where I continue to study) at 21. My summer school is a 'put back' into the community event. I will be teaching the children all about stagecraft/ vocal technique/ dramatic technique and ultimately this will cultivate in a theatrical performance for parents on the Friday afternoon. If anyone does face financial hardship and has a particular talent for the performing arts they are still to get in touch so we can hopefully arrange something. The week should be good fun ultimately and it should offer Uttoxeter's young people a thoroughly professional experience on their doorstep.
