Bramshall News Editor

Marie Lowe has been the excellent editor of this News Sheet for the past few years. Sadly, she now feels it is time to step down as other commitments take priority. While taking this opportunity to thank Marie for her time, patience and skill as editor, is there anyone who would be prepared to undertake this important role either on a short or longer term basis?

Good luck to Chloe Hawkins who is running in the London Marathon for “Tommy’s” - Sunday 28th April

LIVE AND LOCAL

It is with regret that I have to inform you that, due to lack of interest, there will be no further participation in the Live & Local scheme here in the village. Thank you to all who have supported and enjoyed the various performances over the past 10 years – we’ve had some fantastic evenings.

Village Day Clean-Up

In preparation for the forthcoming Best Kept Village and Churchyard Competitions a group of willing volunteers (pictured above enjoying a well-earned cuppa) spent an exhausting morning filling a skip after trimming hedges, pruning shrubs, and generally sweeping & tidying along footpaths. A big thank you for your achievements – let's all keep

FAMILY FUN DAY

Saturday 8th June from 11.00—4.00 in and around the Parish Hall. An ideal setting for families and residents to get together and have a great day. Attractions include a bouncy castle, an indoor ball-pit, meet the llamas, face painting; as well as BBQ cakes & games stalls. We would love everyone to come along, bring food & drink to share, and enjoy the day. We hope you can make it and support the village.

Bramshall Football Club have reached the local Cup Final following a thrilling victory over Stone Town FC, in which Bramshall came back to win the tie 4-3 thanks to a late penalty deep into extra time. The final will take place at Oldfields Sports Ground in Uttoxeter on Sunday 5th May, kick off 10.30am. Come on Bramshall !!

Chicken Korma

Ingredients:-

2 Chicken breasts. 1 med onion,
1 clove garlic (optional).
1/2 jar Korma paste, 50ml water.
Coconut cream
50ml double cream.

Stir the mixture of oil.

Heat oil in a pan and when warm add chopped onion, cook until soft. Add 1/2 jar of Pataks korma paste cook for 1-2mins. Add 50ml of water and finely chopped clove of garlic. Cook until water has evaporated. Add 500g diced chicken, cook until sealed. Once chicken sealed put in small tin of coconut cream. Taste and if you want more curry flavour I add teaspoon of curry powder but remember Korma is fairly mild. After cooking for 15mins put the curry into a serving dish and drizzle with double cream and fresh chopped coriander. Serve with boiled rice and Naan bread.

If you like Indian food then use same method using Tikka Masala paste. I find paste much better than jars of ready-made sauces. However I hope you enjoy the above.
