

OXFORDSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL

Allegations against individuals who work or volunteer in your organisation

Allegations that a staff member or volunteer:

- has or may have harmed a child
- may have committed a criminal offence related to a child
- behaved towards a child in a way that indicates they might pose a risk of harm if working regularly or closely with children.

Must be reported to the designated senior manager (designated safeguarding lead) for allegations named below straight away

The above person must then inform Oxfordshire's designated officers team (LADO), before taking any action and within 24 hours, who will provide advice and guidance

The Designated Officer for Oxfordshire County Council is

Alison Beasley
