Wishing you a little happiness in every stitch, Sarah, Penny & Andy

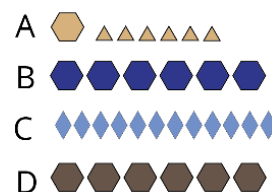

Orion..... was the son of the Poseidon (God of the sea and brother of Zeus) and Euryale, daughter of King Minos of Crete. He is best known for his great hunting abilities.

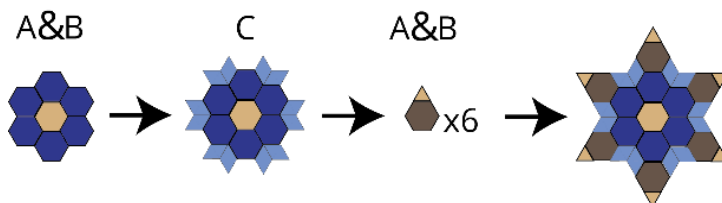

After many heroic escapades, he was eventually killed by a giant scorpion. Upon which Zeus turned both Orion, as well as the Scorpion that killed him, into a constellation.

Pegasus..... was the famous winged horse, who appears in many tales.

My favourite being as the fearless and loyal companion to Perseus, as he embarked on his heroic adventures to save Andromeda.
