Who leads the retreat?

I'm Sarah Hamilton-Gill, founder of the award-winning business, Leap into Consulting™. I'll be your lead coach on this journey.

I live what I teach; having grown a 7-figure business from nothing, two six-figure businesses, and created a product that sells in 56 countries, I've achieved many of my dreams.

Leap into Consulting™ has been named most influential small business (2018), CIPD Best HR Consultancy (2018), and HR Consultancy of the Month by the publication Business and Industry Today (January 2020).

After years of visiting the beautiful island of Corfu, I have finally achieved my dream of living and working from here. I've created a lifestyle I enjoy, desire, and deserve by building a profitable business that allows me to choose how and where I wish to work.

Today I live between the UK and Greece with my partner, Russell. I also have two grown-up boys and am in the process of finalising my long-awaited book.

Where will we stay?

Villa 1870, Corfu Town

We will stay in a private three-storey villa, with private pool and views over the Ionian Sea.

Villa 1870 is situated on the edge of beautiful Corfu Town. It's a 5-minute drive from the Old City of Corfu (a UNESCO World Heritage Site), as well as close to other modern amenities.

The facilities

This is a 19th century villa, refurbished in 2018; original design meets modern technology.

With luxuriant gardens and breathtaking views over the blue Ionian Ocean sea, it's an idyllic setting for five days of intensive learning activities interspersed with organised island trips.

Food is prepared by the villa's in-house Executive Chef and we can cater for the flexible needs of our guests. Rooms are serviced daily and there are facilities where you can relax and prepare your own drinks - there's even a cellar with a wide variety of wines.

This villa is the perfect combination of relaxing, refreshing and rejuvenating needed for a powerful and productive retreat.
