

THRIFTY WRAPPING IDEAS

A beautifully wrapped present is a joy to behold and adds to the delicious anticipation of opening the gift. But wouldn't you rather focus your money on the content than the packaging? The solution is to make your own wrappings, and you can do this rather stylishly from things you would normally throw away.

Wrap gifts in newspaper, magazines, comics and old maps. Embellish them with junkmail bows, concertina flowers, yarns and buttons.

Cut up old cards to make gift tags

Pompoms made from plastic bags or wool are a fun way to top a gift
