

ANTONIA TEXIDOR

I am an artist living in Stonehouse and a member of Rhizome Artist Collective.

A qualified art teacher and Community Arts coordinator.

I have a great deal of experience working in the art education field, on community projects and facilitating arts events and experiences for a wide range of users.

An annual arts event for 200+ Year 4 Primary school children from 5 schools. Five consecutive years.

An annual arts event for 200+ Year 6 school children. 10 consecutive years.

Workshops for families on a range of art disciplines over 11 years.

Organising and curating an annual art exhibition for Post-16 students from 14 secondary schools in Plymouth.

Running workshops within secondary and primary schools.

Facilitating workshops with artists for primary, secondary and art teachers throughout the academic year.

Organising art teachers training day with practical workshops run by artists and teachers.

Assisting with puppetry workshops for Lord Mayors Day and Christmas Light parade.

Art workshops for women's groups in Stonehouse.