ADLERIAN SUMMER SCHOOL ROLE: -

I am an Adlerian Psychotherapist, clinical psychologist and researcher, passionate about Adlerian Theory and practice. I want to be a part of ASIIP's work to promote Adlerian values and principles and encourage its growth in the UK and worldwide.

I currently work as an ABA Therapist in a Primary School. Since I became an ASIIP member in 2013, I have enjoyed being part of a dynamic community with like-minded people where I feel encouraged, valued and where I can bring my contribution to the development of the Adlerian Society in the UK. Since taking responsibility for coordinating ASIIP's website, I have learnt new IT skills which enable me to successfully undertake this task as well as to help with other projects within the Society, such as Adlerian Summer School and London Lectures. I also promote Adlerian events and workshops on social media, searching and trying new ways of making information available to a broader audience.
