

Here's what participants said about our 2019 Summer School and why would they recommend it: Also a link to our Facebook Page

- Warm and welcoming people; great opportunity to get really deep, learn key concepts and life lessons;
- Well organised; new learning; revision of old and new techniques, networking, learning from others' perspectives and experiences, opportunity to observe and develop;
- Intelligent, well-graded and experiential workshops;
- Quality of teaching;
- Peggy's workshop, friendship, kindness, Betty's workshop; setting – grounds; Richard knowledge and sense of fun;
- Quality of connections;
- The atmosphere and sense of community;
- The community, the learning and the opportunity to grow;
- The entire experience is enjoyable;
- Meeting new facilitators from different countries; the whole Adlerian experience; reconnection, family, holding + warmth; the bonfire evening was magical;
- Learning, play, sanctuary;
- Give people knowledge and skills to grow and change; learning; restore faith in oneself and others;
- Richard Watts' workshop- Tailoring therapy to client's needs - very practical, well presented and researched; Community and connecting with others; very experienced workshop facilitators;
- For connection and the spirit of Adlerian community; very easy to use the online booking form;
- Learn so much about ourselves;
- Supportive community; excellent learning; there is always something new and interesting to learn;
- Community spirit;
- The engagement of the members; the warmth and hospitality; the Theatre;
- Creates growth and connections with others;
- Creative workshops were excellent;
- Wonderful inclusive week; excellent speakers;
- Community and connecting with others; very experienced workshop facilitators;
- The Adlerian Ethos is very strong;
- Because it's fun and you learn a lot;
- I feel evolved; many people and families would benefit from this;
- For the atmosphere of comradeship and inclusivity;
- Always for the Adlerian spirit;
- Lots of learning with lots of fun;
- Excellent learning;