BOBBY POLICE MAN

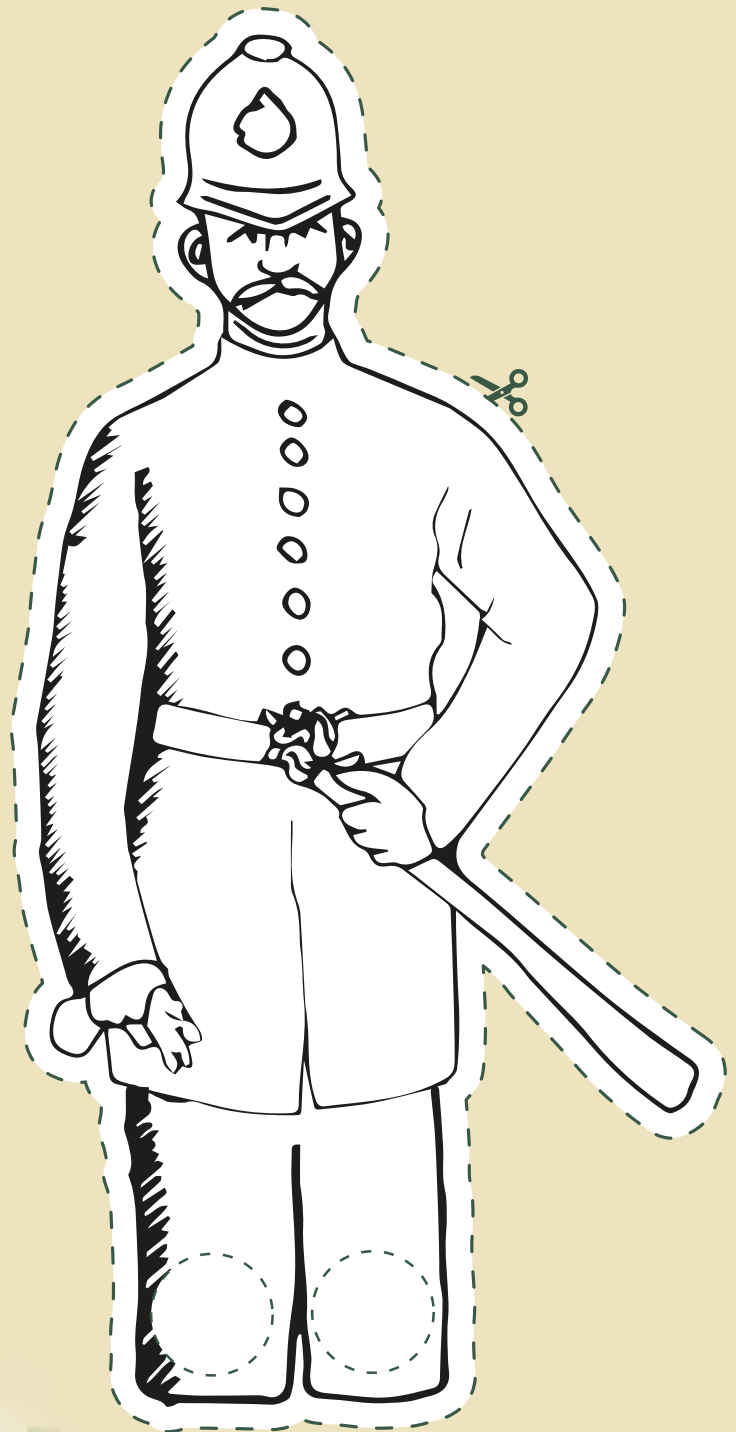

FINGER PUPPETS

Colour in and cut out your wiggly
finger puppet!

Ask an adult to help you cut out
the holes.

DID YOU KNOW ?

The nickname "Bobby" for police officers comes from the man who helped create the service back in 1829, Home Secretary Sir Robert Peel. Did you also know that police cars contains a black box which records everything the vehicle does, so it's a myth that the police put their sirens on when they are getting late for dinner!
