

Rearsby Lodge Riding Club

Ride Together - Train Together - Compete Together - Have Fun Together

CODE OR PRACTICE FOR SENIOR & JUNIOR CLUB MEMBERS.

Rearsby Lodge Riding Club is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all of its members. The Club believes it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents associated with the Club should at all times show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore members are encouraged to be open at all times and to share any concerns or complaints they may have about any aspect of the club with Jacqui Ludlam, The Club's Safeguarding Officer.

As a senior or junior member of Rearsby Lodge Riding Club you are expected to abide by the following Code of Practice:

- All members must play within the rules and respect officials and their decisions.
- All members must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background or religious beliefs or sexual identity.
- All members should keep to agreed timings for trainings and competitions or inform their coach or team manager if they are going to be late.
- All members must wear appropriate attire for training and events as set out in the BRC Handbook and/or agreed with trainer or team manager.
- All members must pay fees for training and events promptly.
- All members are not allowed to consume drugs of any kind at Club training or events or whilst representing the Club at competitions.
- Junior members are not allowed to smoke at Club training or events or whilst representing the Club at competitions.
- Junior members are not allowed to consume alcohol at Club training or events or whilst representing the Club at competitions.
