TSB Bank	30 - 14 - 00

Lateness and Cancellations

Please give as much notice as possible if you are going to be late or cannot attend your appointment. If you are late the session will still finish at the arranged time.

There will be no charge if 4 working days' or more notice of cancellation is given. If a session is cancelled within 4 days the full fee will be charged.

I will give you as much notice as possible if I need to postpone our appointment for any reason.

Confidentiality

Personal information disclosed will remain confidential, with the following exceptions:

1. Clinical Psychologists are required to have regular supervision, in line with the British Psychological Association and the Health Care and Professions Council
2. If there is cause for concern for your safety, or the safety of others, I reserve the right to consult another professional, such as your GP. I will discuss this with you first if at all possible.
3. Where I have a legal obligation to break confidentiality (see Privacy Policy)

I agree to the above terms.
