Notes:

- Please read the 2024 terms and conditions before completing your submission form and tick to indicate that you have done so.
- Before you submit jewellery, or select a table or board, please contact us to ensure that there is space for you.
- Before you submit sculpture, ceramics, glassware or textiles (if you are not taking a table or board), please contact us with some details of your work so that we can determine how they can best be displayed and how many we are able to display.
- The committee reserves the right to reject work for any reason, which may include, but is not limited to size, weight (of framed works) or due to limited hanging / display space. If we are over-subscribed we may have to close entries early.
- Any images you submit may be used in the catalogue, on the website, in printed material, in any press coverage or on social media as publicity for the Festival.
- No changes can be made to your profile after 6th September 2024, as the catalogue will be going to print.
