I understand that:

- A non-refundable fee of 50p per item is payable by me on receipt of any goods
- Items will be displayed and offered for sale in ecoRestyle's shop for approximately six weeks from when they are brought in
- I will receive 50% of the sale price of each item sold
- Unsold items will be taken off sale after six weeks and must then be collected by me within 14 days. Where they are not collected, unsold goods will be donated to charity
- Selected items may also occasionally be offered for sale via ecoRestyle's Facebook page or Ebay
- Any monies due to me can be collected in person at any time following the sale of one or more item. In order to avoid fraud at the point of collection, identification may be requested
- Payment for sold items can be made by cash or Bank transfer. Where cash is requested, I will give at least 48 hours' notice by telephoning, messaging or emailing ecoRestyle so that the account may be made up ready for collection
- Some items may be refused by ecoRestyle. These include (but are not limited to) damaged or dirty items, items in poor general condition, fake (or suspected fake) branded items, certain furs and Ivory
