PRESS RELEASE

July 2020

FACCC Coaching Pathway to Launch with Matt Machan

Ahead of the new Friends of Arundel Cricket Club Limited coaching pathway starting on October 3rd, we are delighted to announce ex Sussex CCC and Scotland number 3, Matt Machan will be leading the course.

Matt said: 'I am absolutely delighted to be involved in leading the new coaching pathway at Arundel Castle Cricket Club. Working and delivering sessions at one of the most iconic venues in world cricket is an absolute honour. I am very much looking forward to starting the courses from October - it's going to be so much fun!'

He continued 'I am thrilled that we will now be delivering 1-2-1, small group sessions and masterclasses from this outstanding venue'

James Rufey, the Chief Operating Officer at Arundel Castle Cricket Club Limited said: 'We are delighted that Matt will lead our new coaching pathway starting in October. On top of his enthusiasm for developing young players; his recent first class playing experience with Sussex and ECB level 3 coaching qualification makes him the ideal fit to lead our new Coaching Pathway.'

The club also announced that Lara Johnson (Sussex Foundation Community Coach) will be leading the Girls & howzat4kidz sessions.
