

GLADRAGS

COVID-19 COMMUNITY STORIES PROJECT

What's your local lock-down story?

How about sharing your experience so we can all understand each other better?

GLADRAGS' Covid-19 Blog is a collection of view-points by ordinary people, both the challenges and the positives. Anyone, any age can take part:

in writing

over a chat

by audio

by video

Blogs and info at www.gladragscostumes.org.uk/lockdownprojects
or contact us: info@gladragscostumes.org.uk / 07940 295623

Covid-19 stories is already a free online resource for schools and community / youth projects and we'll ultimately share this living local history in a printed booklet.

have had a positive experience

You may:

need your voice
to be heard

have been struggling

Do you know someone else who has a story to share?

Keyworker?

Family?

Friend?

Volunteer?

Give voice to your story. Submissions by 31st July.

A big thank you to East Brighton Trust for funding this project.

Gladrag Community Costume Trust is based in Moulsecomb, Brighton. Charity Reg. 1122704.